APPENDIX.

Account Rules relating to the Village Improvement Fund

I. Drawing of Funds from the Treasury.

1. A sum of rupees two lakhs is provided annually in the State Budget for sanctioning grants in aid of works of permanent utility in villages, the amount which the Government will be prepared to sanction being one-half of the amounts locally raised by the people towards objects approved by Government.

(G. O. No. R. 6058-6107—L. R. 430-13-1, dated 6th February 1914.)

Note:—

(1) As a special case, grants-in-aid not exceeding the amount of people's contribution has been authorised during the years 1913-14, 1914 15 and 1915-16.

(2) In Union villages also, wherever villagers raise voluntary contributions, independently of the ordinary Union revenue for village improvement works, grants-in-aid calculated on such contributions may be sanctioned as in the case of other villages.

(G. O. No. R. 3441-51—L. R. 10-14-44, dated 11th November 1914.)

2. The allotment for village improvement works is intended to be utilized chiefly in promoting works for which expenditure may be legitimately incurred from Provincial or District Funds, such as, improvements in sanitation, water-supply, drainage of the village, formation of village roads, provision of accommodation for travellers and works of a similar character.

(G. O. No. R. 3021-51—L. R. 10-14-35, dated 22nd October 1914.)

Note:—

(1) It is not intended that the Village Improvement allotment should ordinarily be utilized for constructing school houses, which are governed by separate rules in force in the Education Department.

(2) As a rule, grants-in-aid should not be given for the construction of buildings intended for religious and charitable purposes. Special sanction of Government should be obtained for giving the concession in exceptional cases

3. Grants-in-aid will not ordinarily be allowed for villages in which Village Committees have not been formed and where there is no responsible body to account for the expenditure.

(G. O. No. R. 8512-21—L. R. 430-13-11, dated 29th April 1914.)

4. Grants-in-aid not exceeding one-fourth of the total cost of village improvement works may be sanctioned for inam villages provided that a Village Committee has been formed in the village and not less than half the cost of the proposed improvement has been paid by the villagers and the other one-fourth by the Inamdar or the villagers.

(G. O. No. R. 8749-58—L. R. 430-13-16, dated 9th May 1914.)

5. The annual grant of two lakhs will be distributed by Government among the several districts as necessity requires and the amount allotted to each district will be placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner in the District Treasury for being operated upon by him or under his orders.

(G. O. No. R. 9767-76—L. R. 430-13-50, dated 20th June 1914.)

Powers of sanction.

6. Amildars and Deputy Amildars are empowered to sanction grants up to Rs. 50 in each case. Sub-Division Officers from Rs. 50 to 200; and Deputy Commissioners from Rs. 200 to Rs. 500, cases involving grants exceeding 500 should be reported to Government and their sanction obtained.

(G. O. No. R. 6761-70—L. R. 430-13-2, dated 25th February 1914 and R. 3021-51—L. R. 10-14-35, dated 22nd October 1914.)

The officers who are competent to sanction grants-in-aid for works may also sanction advances in respect of each work not exceeding 25 per cent of the estimated cost at a time and such advances should always be adjusted within one month from the date of grant.

(G. O. No. R. 1843-52—L. R. 10-14-24, dated 1st September 1914.)

7. (1) When the estimate for any particular work is sanctioned, the Deputy Commissioner or other sanctioning authority will after satisfying himself that the contribution of the villagers has been paid into the Treasury or an equivalent quantity of work done by them, transfer the amount of the Government grant to the Village Improvement Fund by means of a bill containing the following particulars:—

(i) Nature of the work for which grant has been sanctioned.

(ii) Estimate of cost.

(iii) Amount contributed by the villagers (a) in cash and (b) by labour.

(iv) The date on which the cash contribution was credited into the Treasury to be supported by the Treasury Officer's credit certificate.

(2) Funds required for payment for work done, either during the progress of the work or after completion, will be drawn on work bills duly passed by the Deputy Commissioner out of the Village Improvement Fund.

(N B.—Public Works form 25 or L. B. 16 may be used for these bills.)

(3) The Amildar concerned will be held responsible to see that the amount is properly spent.

II. Accounts to be maintained by Revenue Officers.

(1) Register of Grants-in-aid.

8. With a view to provide for the effective check and supervision by the Amildar and other Revenue Officers over the expenditure sanctioned as grants-in-aid, a register in Form A annexed will be maintained in each taluk and the Amildar and other Superior Revenue Officers should scrutinise the register and see that the amounts sanctioned as grants-in-aid are properly utilised.

(2) Work Registers.

9. In addition to the register of grants-in-aid referred to above a 'C' register (P W. Form 45 i.e., the work register referred to in L. B. 14) shall be maintained in the Taluk Offices to show the comparison of the sanctioned estimate for each work with the expenditure incurred upon it from time to time. A separate page in this register shall be given for each work. In the Sub-Division and District Offices an abstract register in Form L. B. 13 will be maintained in which all estimates and allotments will be entered and the monthly progress of expenditure recorded.

Detailed instructions regarding the maintenance of these registers as well as the measurement books are contained in Local Boards Rules 95 to 106.

(3) Advance Register.

10. As under the Government Order of 1st September 1914, referred to in Rule 6 supra, Revenue officers, are authorised to sanction advances within certain prescribed limits, an advance register on the lines of Form 21 of the Local Boards Rules should be maintained in the District, Sub-Division and Taluk Offices.

III. Accounts to be maintained in the Treasuries.

11. A register should be maintained in each District and Taluk Treasury showing the amounts credited and debited to the Village Improvement Fund and the Treasury should watch that the amounts paid do not exceed the balance at credit. The District Treasury should forward to the Comptroller's Office a plus and minus memo showing by taluks, the opening balance, credits, debits and closing balance under the Village Improvement Fund every month along with the Treasury accounts; and in support of the debits a consolidated bill should be prepared each month, to which the bill drawn by the Village Committees will be attached, the total amount drawn each month being charged in the second list of payments.

12. The Taluk Treasury should also keep a ledger showing the transactions of the several Committees with which it has dealings, to enable it to find the balance at the credit of each Committee.

IV. Audit.

13. In addition to the centralised audit of the work bills in the Comptroller's Office, a certain percentage of work bills, say 10 per cent, will be examined locally by the Local Audit Staff of the Comptroller's Office with reference to the measurement books and other registers maintained in the District, Sub-Division and Taluk Offices and every facility should be afforded for carrying on this work.

V. Accounts to be maintained by Village Committees.

14. To account for all moneys collected by Village Committees or placed at their disposal by Government officers for expenditure, each Village Committee should keep two cash books one for the Village Improvement Fund and the other for the Village Common Fund in Form B annexed.

(a) Cash Book for the Village Improvement Fund.

This relates to all transactions on account of important village improvement works undertaken by the Village Committee to be carried out with the aid of Government grants.

All collections made from the villagers for carrying out such works will be entered in this cash book in detail as they are made and the sums thus collected will be remitted to the Treasury with a chellan to the credit of the Village Improvement Fund or deposited in the Government Savings Bank until a Government grant is sanctioned for the work and charged off in the Cash Book. The amounts drawn from the Treasury either as advances or on work bills under the authority of Government officers and paid to the parties through the Village Committees should likewise be shown in this Cash Book.

To enable the Committee to know what amount is available for expenditure at any time, a pass book in the form of the Savings Bank Pass Book showing the credits, debits and balance in the Treasury should be maintained and sent to the Treasury once a month or oftener if convenient. The entries in the Pass Book will be made only by the Treasury Staff.

(b) Cash Book for the Village Common Fund.

All other collections made from the villagers for the common benefit of the village in accordance with Government Order No. R. 9034-43—L. R. 10-14-139, dated 19th April 1915, and all money contributions received by the Committee in lieu of half a day labour every week should be shown in this

No. R. 5862-73—L. R. 10-14-209, DATED 15TH DECEMBER 1915.

Cash Book. The sums thus collected will be deposited in the Government Savings Bank and charged off in the Cash Book. Whenever any money out of this Fund is withdrawn from the Savings Bank for expenditure, the transactions should likewise be shown in the Cash Book.

15. Every Village Committee should also maintain a monthly record of progress in the form prescribed in Government Order No. R. 5605-14—L R 10-14-71, dated 26th December 1914 (vide Form C, annexed) This should be prepared in duplicate one copy being kept by the Committee and the other forwarded to the Amildar or the Deputy Amildar concerned within the 5th of the month following that to which the record relates.

Progress of Village Improvement Work.

Statements of progress of village improvement work in the several districts during the quarter ending 30th September 1915, received from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts through the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

Order No. R. 5912-23—L. R. 15-15-90, dated 17th December 1915.

A consolidated statement showing the progress of village improvement work in all the districts during the quarter ending the 30th September 1915, is appended.

2. Village Committees.—The total number of Committees reported to be working in all the districts is 7,934 as against 7,745 in the previous quarter. The number of Committees in all the districts, except Shimoga and Kadur, increased by 195, while there was a decrease of 6 in the Shimoga District and the number in the Kadur District remained the same. The number of villages served by the Committees rose to 13,560 thus bringing 81 per cent of the populated villages in the State under the operation of the scheme as against 79 in the previous quarter.

Only the Deputy Commissioners of Tumkur, Mysore, Hassan and Chitaldrug Districts have furnished information regarding the number of villages for which Committees have yet to be formed and sent brief reviews of the progress in the several taluks as desired in paragraph 7 of Government Order No R. 1816-27 L. R. 10-14-194, dated the 10th August 1915. This omission on the part of the other Deputy Commissioners should be avoided while submitting future returns.

3. Essential duties under the scheme.—During this quarter 3,388 Committees held weekly gatherings of villagers for carrying out village improvements by joint labour as against 2,966 in the previous quarter. The progress in this respect is very slow and Government trust that the local officers will endeavour their best to induce every Committee to attend to this most important duty. The number of Committees that were subscribing for one or more newspapers and of those holding weekly meetings for recreation and instruction were 3,016 and 2,327 as against 2,659 and 2,039 respectively, in the previous quarter.

4. Special village improvement works.—The total number of Committees that undertook special improvement works was 936 in all the districts as against 726 in the previous quarter. The contributions raised from villagers for such works amounted to Rs. 39,398 and the Government grants-in-aid of the same to Rs. 33,067. The amount actually worked out during the quarter was Rs. 23,564.

It is observed that in the Hassan District the people have not availed themselves of the concession under the scheme to any appreciable extent. The value of works undertaken by the villagers in this district with the aid of Government grants during the last year was comparatively small, and in none of the taluks except Belur have any contributions been raised for any work during the quarter under review. The Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, is requested to submit a special report of the measures he proposes to adopt to bring that district into line with other districts.

5. The Deputy Commissioners should be requested to be more prompt in the submission of the reports to the Revenue Commissioner so as to enable the latter officer to send them to Government before the end of the month following the quarter to which they relate. Government would be glad if the Revenue Commissioner would review the reports in future pointing out in what districts the work is well done and where the measures adopted require improvement The names of officers who show special activity and of those who are slack may be brought to the notice of Government as occasion requires.

Order No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, dated Bangalore, 31st December 1915.

It has been the custom from time immemorial, to remunerate minor village servants by miras or payment in kind, and rules were issued with the approval of the Government of India under the late Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 123, dated the 1st August 1878, recognising the existence of the custom, and defining the rates of miras and modes of enforcement in case of default, as a tentative measure in the first instance, in the districts comprised in the Nandidrug Division.

After some experience had been gained of their working they were extended to the other districts in Government Order No. 1668 76—R 539, dated the 10th August 1897, on the representations of the village servants and the members of the Representative Assembly. It was, however, expressly provided that in fixing the rates of miras, the custom of the locality should, as far as possible, be accepted.

2. The rates of miras actually payable are thus different in different districts, but three seers of ragi per acre of cultivated land may be taken as the average rate. Taking the average price of ragi to be eighteen seers the rupee, the miras payable is equivalent to about 2½ annas per acre of land (dry, wet or garden). It is represented that this rate is high, and presses heavily on the raiyats and that the miras system should be abolished, the village servants being remunerated in cash or in the shape of land inams by Government.

3. In the opinion of a former Revenue Commissioner (Mr. A. Rangaswamiengar) the average rate of remuneration for a village servant under present day conditions should be Rs. 40 per annum, one-half of which should be paid by the raiyats as miras and the other half by the Government in cash or in the shape of land inam. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey, the Inspector-General of Police, and the Deputy Commissioners who were consulted by the Revenue Commissioner, are not in favour of any change being introduced in the existing system.

4. The scheme proposed by the Revenue Commissioner involves a recurring annual expenditure of about Rs. 2½ lakhs to Government and such a radical change would be justified only, if it was certain that the remuneration of these village servants would be found inadequate, even if existing rules were efficiently enforced. Moreover, Government have already contributed their quota of the cost in the shape of service inam lands in a large majority of cases, and sanctioned new inams, whenever a necessity for the same has been made out.

5. The imposition of a cess to provide funds for the remuneration of these village servants according to the new system now proposed would be an unnecessary innovation and an undesirable substitute for the present long established practice of miras. The majority of the landholders seem also opposed to it.

6. Under these circumstances, Government do not consider that any change is called for in the existing system of remuneration. There should be no interference with the local rates of miras. As there seems however to be some force in the contention that the rates prescribed in the rules of 1878 are high and should be reduced, Government direct that, where the claim is disputed and forcible recovery has to be resorted to, the maximum quantity of grain that could be levied from the defaulting raiyat should be fixed as the equivalent of one anna in the rupee of assessment, calculated at rates prevailing at the harvest time of the year, in which default is made.

7. Compulsory levy should be ordered only in respect of one year's dues, provided further that the claim has been preferred within the official year in which default is made.

8. As regards the appointment of these servants, in villages which are not already provided with them, Government do not consider it expedient to issue any general directions but each such case will be dealt with on its own merits on receipt of specific recommendations from the Revenue Commissioner.

9. In cases, where the miras is patently inadequate, necessary land Inams may, with the sanction of Government, be granted out of Government waste.

10. The Jamadandi officer should satisfy himself by personal enquiries during Jamabandi that these minor village servants are not deprived of their remuneration through ignorance of rules and procedure and of their rights.

ACCOMPANIMENT No. I.

(Summary of representations made at the several sessions of the Representative Assembly from the year 1905 and onwards.)

Subject No. 166 of 1905.
Money payments to totis and talaris.

(a) Messrs. Shanbhog Gopalaiya, Chitaldrug District Board.

(b) Ranga Naika, Tumkur.

(c) B. Mailaraiya, Seringapatam Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The system of payment of miras to totis and talaris does not work well under the existing rules and causes much inconvenience to Government work. It is difficult to obtain redress by petition to the Amildar in case of default of payment of miras by individual raiyats. It is therefore proposed that a fixed rate of fee per rupeee may be levied from every raiyat to form a fund and salary paid out of it in cash to these servants like patels and shanbhogs either yearly or monthly.

(b) Prays that the village servants may be allowed to enjoy their mamul inams as before.

(c) Prays that the service inam lands may be resumed and fully assessed fixing annual or monthly payments to village servants, or mirasi system enforced.

Reply of Government.—The conversion of the present liability into a money cess is no doubt better, and opinions of the Survey, and Revenue and Deputy Commissioners will be called for.

Subject No. 174 of 1906.
The giving of miras to totis to be brought into force.

Mr. Gurikar Yalakki Gowda, Kankanhalli Taluk.

Miras to totis and talaris to be paid in cash or additional Inam lands granted to them.

Messrs. Lakshminarasimhachar, Chamrajnagar Taluk; Srinivas Sitaram Kulkarni, Harihar Sub-Taluk; Shanbhog Mudlagiri Rao, Jagalur Taluk; Nadig Thimmanna and Venkatagiriappa, Davangere Taluk; Rama Rao, Bhaskara Rao, Lakshmana Rao and Sivaiya Gowda, Sorab Taluk; Halappa and Nanjundaiya, Channagiri Taluk; A. Ramappa, Nagar Taluk; Bhavani Rao, Shikarpur Taluk; Ranga Naik, Tumkur Taluk; and Hutchveere Gowda, Gubbi Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The time-honoured practice of giving to the totis of villages one kolaga of ragi and one bundle of straw per year by each holder has been changed into that of giving three kolagas per acre and thereby additional burden has been imposed on land holders. The old custom may be re-introduced. Large landholders are taxed much more on this account.

The present system of paying miras to totis and talaris in grain is defective and the same may be ordered to be paid in cash, a definite rate being fixed on the extent of the holding of each raiyat or the assessment he pays. When this matter was discussed in the last year's Representative Assembly Meeting, the Dewan was pleased to say that the question would be referred for the opinion of the Survey and the Revenue Commissioners as also of the several Deputy Commissioners. The present system is a great hardship to land-owners paying large kandayam. It is therefore prayed that the miras may be altogether abolished and additional inam lands granted to these village servants.

Collection of toti and talari mirasis in monetary value with Government khists.

Mr. Naraharaiya, Nelamangala Taluk.

The non-payment of miras to totis and talaris at three seers per acre each inflicts hardship on these poor servants and impedes proper discharge of Government work by these. And as three seers per acre to each is a burdensome tax on the poor rayats, the same may be reduced to some extent, and collected with the kandayam in monetary value and paid to these servants as monthly payments.

Pay to totis and talavars.

Messrs. B. Kesavaiengar and Kesavadasiengar, Belur Taluk.

As in His Majesty's Territory, totis and talavars may be given regular pay in cash. This would result in proper repairs to bandhs, etc., and the work expected from them will be done satisfactorily.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 269-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

Reply of Government.—This matter will be referred to the Survey Commissioner for consideration.

Subject No. 175 of 1906.
Empowering Amildars to enquire into cases of miras due to totis and talvars or fixing separate remuneration to them.
Mr. Lingegowda, patel of Nagavala, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—As the raiyats do not regularly pay the "miras" due to totis and talvars, the latter are put to great inconvenience thereby. It is therefore prayed that Amildars be ordered to enquire into the matter during the Jamabandi time and to recover the miras from the defaulting raiyats as a revenue demand or else a separate scale of remuneration may be fixed for these low paid village servants.

Reply of Government.—At present if the toti or talavar applies to the Amildar, the Amildar helps him to recover the miras. The matter will be further considered in connection with the Draft Hereditary Village Officers' Regulation.

Subject No. 62 of 1907.
(a) Cash remuneration in place of present miras to totis and talaris.
Mr. Srinivas Sitaram Kulkarni, Harihar Sub-Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The existing rules provide that occupants of lands must pay grain to the totis and talaris at three seers per acre on account of their miras; but there are no accounts kept to show that every raiyat pays his portion. This has given rise to disputes between the raiyats and the totis and talaris; and Government work also suffers. It is therefore prayed that a miras cess of one anna per acre be ordered to be recovered from each raiyat along with kandayam and the amount disbursed to these totis and talaris from the Treasury direct.

(b) Remuneration to totis and talaris to be paid by Government.
Mr. A. Ramappa, Nagar Taluk.

(b) Totis and Talaris are appointed to do Government work and their pay should therefore be paid by Government. It is a hardship to levy "Aya" from the raiyats in addition to land revenue.

(c) Toti and talari miras to be reduced and that of nirgantis raised.
Messrs. Guruva Reddi, Bangalore Taluk; Shanbhog Naraharaiya and Patel Chennalingappa, Nelamangala Taluk; and Rama Rao, Tumkur Municipality.

(c) The miras allowed at present to the totis and talaris is too much, in view of the separate land inams allowed to them and the small amount of work done by them. The same may be reduced.

The prayer made last year that miras levied from the raiyats be reduced and commuted into a money payment may be granted early.

The allowance to nirgantis may be increased on account of the difficult nature of their work.

(d) Miras to totis and talaris in Inam villages.
Mr. Rangachar, T.-Narsipur Taluk.

(d) Totis and talaris in inam villages may, as in unalienated villages, be given miras. Those who refuse to give should be compelled to do so.

(e) Mr. Raghavachar states that the rules regarding levy of miras are construed as not applicable to Inam villages.

(f) Mr. Lakshmi Narasimhachar states that the payment of miras presses heavily on the larger land-holders who are not benefited in proportion to the payment and that considering the high rate of remuneration to totis and talaries, these may be entrusted with the duties of night-watch, of which the agriculturists may be relieved.

(g) Mr. Amble Annaiya Pandit states that it is desirable to make the payment vary according to the produce and not have it fixed in cash and that the rate should be reduced in the case of the larger land-owners.

(h) Some of the members suggest that totis and talaris should not be designated village officers but village servants.

(i) Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao states that one of the members of the Committee to be appointed to consider the question should be a non-official member.

Mr. Raghavachar.—One of the members should also be an Inamdar.

Reply of Government.—It does not seem to be desirable to levy a cess, as it will only increase the assessment payable by the raiyats. It is under consideration to appoint a Committee to consider whether the present rates of miras are high, what facilities should be provided for their recovery, what duties should be performed by these totis and talaris and to whom they should be made responsible. The request for the nomination of non-official members on this Committee is noted.

Subject No. 84 of 1908.

(a) Appointment and remuneration of totis and talaris.

Messrs. A. Venkatachar, Hole-Narsipur Taluk; Nadig Bhaskara Rao, Nadig Lakshmana Rao, Rama Rao, Sorab Taluk; Venkanna, Molakalmuru Taluk; Parvatappa, Holalkere Taluk; Mudlagiri Rao, Jagalur Taluk; Srinivas Sitaram Kulkarni, Harihar Sub-Taluk; Syed Sab, Baji Rao Sindhe, Kankanhalli Taluk; Shanbhog Naraharaiya, and Channa Lingappa, Nelamangala Taluk.

(b) Miras to village servants in jodi villages.

Mr. Surappa, Tumkur Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) 1. As there are no talaris in many villages, one may be appointed for each village or at least one for each firka. Totis also may be employed for each village.

Some villages have sufficient inam lands assigned to these servants, others hardly enough, while some have none at all. As much difficulty is felt in procuring the services of these servants for Government duties, arrangements may be made to give them miras or cash remuneration.

2. The totis and talaris may be paid in cash instead of in kind. The amount required for payment to these servants may be levied from the raiyats along with the land revenue. Some villages have no totis and talaris attached to them. This causes much inconvenience to Government work. The rule that miras at the rate of three seers per acre should be given to these servants works hardly on big landholders; when a reduction of this rate was proposed in 1906, it was said that the matter would be referred to the Survey Commissioner.

For want of totis and talaris, the patels in the malnad are very heavily worked and they find it very difficult to regularly submit their reports and accounts and to attend to the regular collection of land revenue from the raiyats. It is therefore prayed that in every village in the malnad, a toti and a talari may be appointed by Government as in the case of maidan villages.

3. The Istiharnama prescribing the rates of miras to totis and talaris was read out at the Re-survey Settlement to the raiyats present at the time and they were given to understand that the order would be in force for thirty years. The raiyats holding dry lands feel it hard to pay the miras at the prescribed rate of three seers per acre to each of the several classes of village servants, as in these seasons of scarcity, they do not always get a proper yield from their lands. The talaris and totis have consequently to resort to the revenue courts for filing suits against defaulting raiyats, and this enhances the burden on the raiyats. As it is not easy to pay miras in kind, it may be ordered to be paid in money at one anna per rupee of the kandayam each raiyat pays to Government.

A cess of six pies per acre may be levied and the amount thus collected paid to the village servants direct from the Treasury.

As observed by Government, the levy of a separate cess would only increase the assessment payable by the raiyats. The miras levied from them may be commuted into a money payment and the entire cost of remunerating the village servants may be borne by Government.

4. The old system of the payment of miras to totis at one Kolaga of ragi and one bundle of grass by each raiyat may again be introduced.

Some concession may be shown to owners of land who pay a large amount of kandayam to Government as otherwise they are likely to suffer much during a failure of crops. At the time of taluk jamabandi it must be ascertained from the totis and talaris if their miras has been properly paid.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

(b) Orders were passed in 1893 by Government that the miras payable to village servants in Jodi and Kavamgutta villages must be levied from the raiyats and not from the Joddars; but the reply to Subject No. 61 of 1907, seems directly to contradict this order. Miras may be levied from the raiyats in accordance with the mamul.

Reply of Government.—The subject is a very intricate one and has been referred to the Revenue Commissioner and the Survey Superintendent for consideration. Their proposals are awaited.

Subject No. 115 of 1909.
Cash remuneration of totis and talaris.

(1) to (4) Messrs. Seshadri Iyengar, Tumkur Municipality; Hutchvire Gowda, Gubbi Taluk; Subbarayappa, Turuvekere Sub-Taluk; Agara Subrayappa, Bangalore Taluk; B. Naraharaiya, Nelamangala Taluk; Karebhama Narasimha Setti, Closepet Sub-Taluk.

(1) Summary of discussion.—Totis and Talaris perform only Government work. They are not properly remunerated. In some instances no inam lands are attached to these offices while in others such inam lands lie uncultivated. They have to depend mainly on the aya which the raiyats are expected to give them. The raiyats find it difficult to give the grain according to the rules, and the difficulty felt is the greater when their own lands remain uncultivated. In the Madras Presidency these servants are paid by Government and a small cess is levied from the raiyats. A similar system may with advantage be introduced into the Mysore State. By this arrangement the service will be improved, and the raiyats will gain a distinct advantage. A cess of half anna or one anna in the rupee may be collected. The subject was discussed last year and it awaits decision.

(2) A cash remuneration of not less than Rs. 4 per mensem may be given to the village totis and talaris in lieu of inam lands and miras which yield nothing during bad seasons.

(3) The raiyats holding dry lands feel it hard to pay the miras at the prescribed rate of three seers per acre to each of the totis and talaris, as in seasons of scarcity they do not get a proper yield from their lands. A reduction of the rate from three to two seers per acre will remove the hardship which is clearly seen in the case of people owning lands to the extent of two to three hundred acres purely for pasture.

(4) The present rule allowing a miras of three seers of ragi per acre to totis and talaris not only fetches them a remuneration larger than the potgi of shanbhogs and patels who hold no separate inams, but operates as a hardship on the poor raiyats. The old rule of one seer per acre and one bundle of grass may be brought into force.

(5) Mr. V. Raghavachar, Mysore Taluk.

(5) As there are no definite orders regarding the grant of miras to totis and talaris, some definite order may be passed.

(6) Messrs. M. Venkatachar, Hole-Narsipur Taluk; C. Vaman Rao, and N. Subba Rao, Nagar Taluk.

(6) As there are no talaris in many villages one may be appointed for each village or at least one for each firka. Totis also may be employed for each village. Some villages have sufficient inam lands assigned to these servants, others hardly enough, while some have none at all. As much difficulty is felt in procuring the services of these servants for Government duties, arrangements may be made to give them miras or cash remuneration.

Mr. C. Seshadri Iyengar.—It is desirable to have an uniform practice in these matters. The present rules are neither favourable to the land-owners nor to the village servants. Many of them receive their miras when the paddy is harvested and claim it again. It is also very difficult to estimate the quantity of the produce. The entries in the pahani are not accurate. It is therefore necessary to levy a special cess. These village servants will then get their remuneration at fixed rates, while the landholders will be free from all kinds of oppressive enquiries and vexation. If the Government get a fixed amount, it will also be possible to appoint a sufficient number of such servants in each village, as, when the village is large, a single toti or talari is not enough. For calculating the cess either the extent of the land or the kandayam paid may be taken as the basis, but the rate should vary according as the land is dry, wet, or garden. If extent is taken as the basis, gardens should be assessed at a higher rate than wet lands and wet lands at a higher rate than dry lands. If assessment is taken as the basis, an inverse order should be followed. The rates to be adopted may roughly be two annas, three annas and four annas, respectively, per acre on dry, wet and garden lands if the rate is to be an acreage rate, or one anna, half anna and quarter anna per rupee of dry, wet, or garden assessment, as the case may be

Mr. Dasappa.—These village servants are better off than shanbhogs and patels. As soon as they apply to the Amildar for help to recover the miras, process is issued and even respectable persons are subjected to annoyance. In the village of Panjavara, Channarayapatna hobli, Devanhalli Taluk, the extent of cultivated lands is 682 acres and 19 guntas and the assessment is Rs. 1,870-12-0. The totis and talaris have 24 acres and 5 guntas of inam lands for which they pay a yearly jodi of Rs. 12-4-0. The full survey valuation of the inam lands is Rs. 89-8-0. They make a profit of nearly Rs. 270 from these inam lands and the amount payable as miras to them comes up to more than Rs. 300. If anything, the miras should be reduced.

Mr. Krishnamurti Rao.—The duties to be done by these village servants are not of much use to the raiyat. They should therefore be paid by Government and a fresh tax or cess should not be levied. The extra cost, if any, should be borne by Government.

Mr. Hutchvire Gowda —These village servants have to be paid in kind. Prices have risen greatly and what they now receive is worth three or four times what they were formerly receiving. The rates may well be reduced. A limit should be fixed as to the maximum amount payable by any one person. To make it vary with the produce introduces an uncertain element, which is extremely prejudicial to the raiyats as well as to the village servants. It is impossible for the patel to exercise any control over them under the present system.

Mr. Malali Venkataramaiya.—Different rates are levied in different localities from time immemorial and there is much harmony between the raiyats and the village servants. A change of system will interfere with this harmony and local usages should therefore be respected.

Mr. Gangaiya.— The working of the existing system, though open to some objections on theoretical grounds, has been found to be satisfactory. It is undesirable to introduce any changes.

Mr. Annaiya Pandit.—The question is one which concerns the remuneration of a class of village servants not represented in the Assembly and is one entirely for the consideration of Government.

Mr. Seshadri Iyengar.—Having discussed the matter with some of the members, he found that the opinion against the levy of any cess was strong. The miras was properly to be paid by the persons who actually cultivated the land; and by the levy of the cess, there is an impression that it would be the land-owners that would become responsible for it entirely. There is no difficulty for these village servants to get something from the raiyats if they go when the crops are harvested. A separate process establishment is temporarily established for the service of processes. If Government decide to levy a cess, it will not be more than half of what is now collected according to the present rates.

Reply of Government.—The subject is important and is under the consideration of the Revenue Commissioner and the Superintendent of Revenue Survey. When their opinion is received, due consideration will be given to the representations now made.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The remuneration for totis and talaris is fixed at so many seers per acre, whether there happens to be any yield or not. This is rather hard on the raiyats. It is requested that either a reduction may be made in the rate or as in other places a money payment fixed on the amount of the land assessment or house-tax ordered.

Pray that the original mamul for the grant of one bundle of stalks of grain and one kolaga of ragi be continued.

The present acreage system of miras to totis and talaris is an infliction on the raiyats. Government have been repeatedly requested to pay a fixed allowance instead. This may be ordered early.

(b) To do the work given by the village patel and to assist him in the discharge of Government work, it is prayed that orders may be issued for the entertainment of these village servants in villages where they do not now exist.

Mr. Abidalli Sab.—Very little of the work done by these servants is of any use to the raiyats and they should therefore be paid by Government and the miras abolished.

Mr. D. Hanumantha Rao.—The miras was originally fixed by the raiyats and the village servants concerned by mutual agreement. By fixing an invariable amount the raiyats are now placed at a great disadvantage. The totis and talaris have benefited in several ways under the new rules. Most of them have inam lands which have greatly risen in value. As miras is given in kind, the increase in prices has nearly quadrupled their remuneration. In a village having 200 acres of dry land, the remuneration of totis according to the miras rules is about Rs. 60 per annum.

Reply of Government.—The Revenue Commissioner has recently submitted proposals for revising the rules regarding the payment of miras and the subject will be thoroughly considered.

Summary of discussion.—(1) (a) The totis and talaris have to perform various kinds of duties. It is suggested that they may be remunerated in cash and their service inam lands fully assessed.

It is prayed that cash remuneration may be ordered to be granted to these village servants, as "Aya" is not regularly paid by the villagers at present and as in some villages these have been resigning their posts for want of means of livelihood.

(b) The raiyat has to pay six seers of grain per acre as remuneration to totis and talvars in villages which have these office-holders. This is a hardship which has often been brought to the notice of Government. The practice obtaining in the British Territory should be adopted here also.

Payment in kind as at present presses heavily, especially in bad seasons, as the quantity is fixed per acre and not according to the produce.

(c) Cash remuneration in lieu of kind may be fixed for the services rendered by totis and talaris, the charge being met from the levy of additional cess on this account.

(d) The introduction of the Nandidroog system has been a great hardship as the mamool rates were different.

(2) (a) Deputy Commissioners may be authorized to employ Kulawadis on a pay of not less than Rs. 3 per mensem in malnad villages wherever their services are absolutely found necessary. In the malnad their services are very necessary as there is great mortality among cattle and there is no one to remove the carcasses. The houses in the village are all scattered and separated by great distances and they are also getting depopulated.

(b) The Kulvadi inam lands allowed in some villages are yielding very little; and in some others, even such Inamtis are not allowed. Pray that a remuneration of at least Rs. 36 per annum be given to the Kulwadis in each village.

(3) Mr. Puttanna Gowda, Tirthahalli Taluk.

(3) As totis and talavars have not been appointed in several villages, much difficulty is experienced for the speedy execution of Government work. It is prayed that in villages where totis and talavars do not now exist their appointments may be ordered.

For facilitating Government work in villages it is prayed that totis and talavars may be appointed to work under patels in all villages.

Totis and talavars do not exist in villages which were originally bechirakh and are newly populated. As much inconvenience for carrying on Government work occurs without these village servants, it is prayed that umbli lands may be set apart for totis and talavars in such villages and that proper persons be appointed as totis and talavars and be given the umbli lands to make them settle in the village and discharge their duties properly.

Mr. A. Narasimha Iyengar.—It is unnecessary to appoint Kulawadis in the Sagar Taluk as the kandayam is collected without difficulty.

Reply of Government.—The question is a big one and it is difficult to devise a general remedy. As a preliminary the Superintendent of Surveys will be requested to carry out a kulvadi survey to ascertain in what places these officials exist, what has become of the inam lands and how they are remunerated.

(b) Messrs. Ramappa, Challakere Taluk; and Hariyanna, Arsikere Taluk.

(a) Summary of discussion.—The totis and talaris have been enjoying service inam lands and miras as well, whereas patels and shanbhogs are paid only potgi. The village servants are thus benefited 4 to 6 times more than patels and shanbhogs themselves. For instance, in a village which has about 500 acres of land with an aggregate assessment of nearly Rs. 1,000 the remuneration of patels and shanbhogs ranges from Rs. 40 to 50, whereas the miras paid in kind to the village servants at the rate of six seers to an acre in addition to their service inam lands, amounts to seers 3,000 which calculated at the lowest market rate, at present amount to Rs. 200. Thus 6 annas on every rupee of tax paid to Government is paid to these village servants. This works very heavily on poor raiyats when they have to pay their dues to Government even when crops fail and some lands hardly yield more than their assessment. Hence it is prayed that the present system of paying miras to the village servants may be abolished and a fixed allowance paid as in the case of patels and shanbhogs.

(b) As aya is not being regularly paid to totis, talaris and nirgantis by some of the raiyats, they are not performing their duties satisfactorily and the Government work often suffers. It is very hard for these minor servants to institute a revenue suit for the recovery of aya as they incur the displeasure of the villagers. It is therefore prayed that in lieu of aya, a cess may be levied and the remuneration of these minor servants paid in cash at the rate of not less than Rs. 2 and not more than Rs. 4 a month.

This was considered along with Subject No. 96.

Subject No. 96 of 1912.
Appointment of totis and talaris in villages where they do not exist.
Mr. S. Sitaramiah, Shimoga Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The want of totis and talaris in several villages has been a source of much inconvenience for the proper discharge of the duties of village officials. As these servants are very useful not only for the discharge of Government work but also to the village community, steps may be taken to appoint them in villages for which totis and talaris have not yet been appointed.

Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao.—In the malnad, the toti is given one bundle of grass and some paddy. He is allowed to take the carcasses of animals, the skins of which yield him a good profit. A similar practice may be introduced in other places. If they are allowed to take the carcasses of all animals, they will be satisfied with a small amount of grain. No uniform system should be introduced but local usages must be followed.

Mr. V. Raghavachar.—In the Ananthapur District, a cess is levied for payment of totis and talaris. A similar cess may be introduced here.

Mr. M. K. Krishnamurti.—Formerly patels and shanbhogs also received oya and when that was abolished no cess was imposed. Government pays the entire potgi. The raiyats do not derive any benefit from the services of these village servants. They are doing entirely Government work and should be paid by Government.

Mr. Hema Hanumanthaiya.—I have much experience both as a revenue officer and landlord. The services of these totis and talaris are absolutely necessary. It is they who have to carry unclaimed corpses. They have to assemble villagers to meet any common danger. No toti is able to get his miras properly. He is afraid to claim it from any of the influential raiyats. No suits are filed for the recovery of miras. The best policy seems to be for Government to pay them, levying a cess for the purpose. This cess may be fixed at one anna per each rupee of assessment on dry land, six pies per each rupee of wet assessment and three pies per each rupee of garden assessment.

Reply of Government.—The subject is under consideration.

(1) Summary of discussion.—The miras now given to totis, talaris and nirgantis by raiyats is very high. These servants are paid a miras in kind aggregating six seers to an acre which would amount to a payment of six annas per acre. Each of the large land owners have thus to pay Rs. 50 to 100 on this account. If this miras cannot be done away with, it may at least be reduced to half the present scale.

(2) This payment may be ordered to be stopped. The raiyats derive no benefit from these servants, who are in the enjoyment of inam lands and do Government work. Potgi may be paid to these also by Government as in the case of patels and shanbhogs. It was proposed by some members last year that dry lands owners should pay them 1 anna in the rupee, wet land owners 6 pies in the rupee and garden owners 3 pies in the rupee. This would add to the taxes already levied from the raiyats. A cess may be introduced to meet the cost of payment of remuneration and the miras done away with.

(3) The work in villages is done either by the toti or talari. In some villages there are not even talaris. The toti alone does the work of collection of kandayam and other Government duties. Miras is not being regularly paid to these servants. The small service inam lands given to them are not sufficient to maintain them. The raiyats find it a strain to pay the miras owing to bad seasons. This fact is bring brought to the notice of Government for years. It is requested that Government may consider this question and remunerate the minor village servants by cash payments.

The miras which was formerly paid to these is mentioned in the Barabaluthi register of 1864. As the present scale exceeds that of 1864, it is prayed that the scale of 1864, be adhered to.

Reply of Government.—Under consideration.

Summary of discussion.—Taluks re-settled by the Survey Department are yielding increased revenue to the State. It is therefore prayed that the remuneration of totis and talaris may be paid out of the increased revenues accruing from this source. The raiyats of the Sorab Taluk petitioned the Superintendent of Revenue Survey during the revision settlement of the taluk that they could not pay the aya due to these village servants, but the levy has not been abolished.

Reply of Government.—Vide reply to Subject No. 68.

Summary of discussion—In none of the villages of the malnad taluks are totis and talaris appointed This want has been a source of much inconvenience to the village officials in the proper discharge of their duties It is prayed that they may be appointed soon.

Reply of Government.—Vide reply to Subject No. 68.

Summary of discussion.—(1) The miras now given to totis and talaris is very heavy considering its money value in these hard times. It amounts to half the revenue payable on dry lands. The land owners find it a great hardship to pay miras in addition to land revenue. The same may either be done away with or it may at least be reduced.

(2) The miras to minor village servants may be abolished as this entails great hardship on the raiyats.

(3) As the raiyats are not giving miras to totis and talaris regularly, they are put to great inconvenience. It is requested that arrangements may be made for its proper distribution.

(4) The totis and talaris cannot make their living out of the small inam land granted by Government. The miras is not paid to them regularly by the raiyats. It is therefore requested that they may be given a fixed salary.

(5) It is prayed that the present system of paying miras to the village servants may be abolished and a fixed allowance or land inam granted.

The members who took part in the discussion, viz., Messrs. D. S. Hanumantha Rao, M. K. Krishna Murti, A. Annaiya Pandit and D S. Krishna Rao said that formely the system of miras was applicable to all village officers. It has been abolished in the case of patels and shanbhogs. It was introduced about the year 1878 in the case of totis, talaris, etc, in the Nandidrug Division. As the miras was levied in kind according to a fixed proportion on the whole occupied area, the rise in prices had the effect of making the emoluments due to these village servants much greater than the potgi now paid to patel and shanbhogs, while as regards the holders of land they were practically made to pay about half or two-thirds of the assessment as an additional impost on account of these servants.

Mr. C. Srinivasa Rao said that in malnad the kulvadi was given a sheaf of corn and dead cattle.

Mr. M. K. Krishna Murti said that there was no reason why raiyats should pay for these village servants who do merely Government work.

Messrs. Chikka Ramanna, Byregowda, Hutchaviregowda, Gundappa and Channakesaviah suggested that the remuneration in kind might be commuted into cash, and Mr. Ramanujiengar that it might be fixed as 2 per cent on the assessment of the village

The Dewan observed that if minor servants were paid in cash, it would involve a cost to Government of Rs. 8,00,000.

Mr. Narasimhachar suggested that the cost might be levied from the villagers in proportion to the areas cropped and Mr. D. Venkataramiah that the pay might be contributed by the various departments whose work was done by the totis, the raiyats also bearing their share.

Mr. M. K. Krishnamurthi said that miras might be abolished and merged in the assessment.

Mr. Narasimhachar suggested further that, if the toti inam was made impartible, the hakdar would find it worth his while to serve, or that all the inams might be resumed and cash payment substituted.

Reply of Government.—The matter requires careful consideration as any change in the existing practice will involve Government in heavy expenditure.

ACCOMPANIMENT No. 2.

RECONSTITUTION OF THE TOTI AND TALARI SERVICE.

Note by Revenue Commissioner (Mr. A. Rangaswami Iyengar).

Section I.
Previous Correspondence.

In June 1904, the Secretary to Government in his docket No. R. 4164, (dated the 28th idem) invited the attention of the Revenue Commissioner to the following representation made at the Dasara Representative Assembly of 1903 and the reply of Government thereto:—

Representation.—"Arrangements may be made to appoint talaris in all the villages, the miras paid to the kulvadis being paid to the former and their services utilised for the collection of revenue. The kulvadis have enough of inam lands for the services rendered by them."

Reply of Government.—"Miras due should be enforced according to the rules. The Revenue Commissioner will be asked to enquire into the matter during his tours."

2. The consideration of this question was not taken up for the first time in 1903, but the subject had been brought for discussion in the Representative Assembly of October 1892, and Sir K. Sheshadri Iyer's reply on Dasara Representative Assembly Subject No. 111 (remuneration of totis and talaris) of 1892 was as follows:—

"In introducing the Survey Settlement in Bombay, the payments in grain which used to be made to all classes of village servants (totis and talaris included) were amalgamated with the Land Revenue, but in Mysore, only the aya of patels and shanbhogs was taken into consideration in fixing the rates of assessment. A small cess to provide for the remuneration of totis and talaris will not be out of the way, but the opinion of the land-owning classes seems to be in favour of the present system of grain payments."

3. The Government in Proceedings No. 9118-28—J. 508-92, dated 11th December 1892, requested the Inspector-General of Police to take up the question of reorganising the village police and to draw up a scheme fixing the scale of remuneration for totis and talaris, whether wholly or partly in grain miras, in land or cash from Government, as local circumstances may demand, while holding at the same time that cash remunertion was unsuitable to this class of sevants and that to the extent it was found necessary to resort to it, a corresponding reduction in the strength of the Regular Police was desirable. The matter was again referred to the Inspector-General of Police for opinion in Secretary's letter No. 2085-5131, dated 29th July 1893.

4. On receipt of Secretary's docket No. 4164, dated 28th June 1904, the Revenue Commissioner issued circulars to districts calling for information on the following points.—

1. Total number of villages.
2. Number of villages having kulvadis only.
3. Number of villages having talvars only.
4. Number of villages having both.

5. The Deputy Commissioners were subsequently (8th May 1905) also asked to furnish information as to how many of the kulvadis and talaris possessed inam lands, and also as to the area, assessment and inam value of these lands.

6. Resurvey operations had then begun in the Shimoga District, and some patels of the Sagar and Nagar Taluks presented petitions to the Revenue Commissioner, while on tour, praying that they might be given totis or talaris to help them in Government work. The Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga also reported in his letter No 360, dated 2nd March 1905, that for want of these minor village servants in some of the malnad taluks, the carrying on of Government work in those taluks was attended with some difficulty and that the time had come for making some effective arrangement to provide the village patels and shanbhogs with these servants.

Mr. T. Ananda Row's opinion.

7. The Revenue Commissioner (Mr. T. Ananda Row) in reply to the Government reference quoted above recommended as follows in his letter L. No 3425, dated 18th October 1905:—

"Partly owing to the ignorance of the illiterate village minor servants to avail themselves of the rules and partly owing to their unwillingness to proceed against the influential raiyats to whose good will they have to look forward and also partly owing to the restrictions of time and place in enforcing the miras rights, payment of miras has been irregular and spasmodic and confined to a few localities and villages. The rules have thus to a great extent failed and become almost inoperative. These officials are required more for Government work and less or not at all for raiyats' work. I beg to suggest that the opportunity afforded by the Revision Settlement may be taken to give each village a suitable toti or talavar. Payment should be made by land inam or cash, the former by preference, land where necessary being selected and assigned by the Survey Department. To induce people to prefer land, it may be laid down that those who take up land Inams will be registered with hereditary hak, while others will be but stipendiary. As regards the value, the amount in each case may be the same as what is prescribed for Police Duties."

Colonel Grant's views.

8. Thereupon the Survey Commissioner (Colonel Grant) whose opinion in the matter was invited by Government stated in his un-official No. 30 K., dated 8th November 1905, as follows:—

"If the taluks of Tirthahalli, Sagar and Nagar never had talaris, or even totis whose services are far more important to the raiytas than those of talaris, the natural inference is that under the peculiar circumstances of the malnad, the villagers did not require these servants. There should either be a general and systematic scheme of remuneration as in the case of patels and shanbhogs, or the miras system left as it is. Assuming the malnad taluks where there are now no talaris at all, to be exceptional, an experiment might be made with Sagar. There would be no difficulty about the charges, for the talari charges would follow the pateli charges. A cash allowance at 4 pies in the rupee of assessment might be fixed, commutable into land when desired, but land is difficult to find in the malnad.

The matter is so simple that it resolves itself into one merely of expense."

Appointment of a Committee.

9. Government then requested the Survey and Revenue Commissioners to form themselves into a Committee and submit proposals on which practical action could be taken and necessary rules laid down for observance. (Vide Government Order No. R. 5920-1, dated 11th November 1905). No opportunity of meeting occurred and the Survey Commissioner, in his docket No. 201, dated 2nd July 1906 to the Secretary to the Government, referring to his un-official No. 30 of 8th November 1905, said that the question required local inquiry and could not be satisfactorily disposed of until the revised rates were announced. The Secretary in his letter No. R. 739, dated 17th July 1906, forwarded a copy of this docket to the Revenue Commissioner and requested him to state what action he proposed to take in the matter. This reference was not replied to, pending information from the districts.

10. Then the Secretary in his docket No. R. 6165 M.—R. M. 212-05, dated 19th December 1906, invited the attention of the Revenue Commissioner to Subject No. 174 of the Dasara Representative Assembly Proceedings of 1906 (quoted below) and requested him to hasten the submission of the proposals already called for.

Representation — "The time-honoured practice of giving to the village toti one kolaga of ragi and one bundle of straw per year has been changed into that of giving 3 kolagas (Seers ?) per acres and thereby additional burden has been imposed on landholders. The old custom may be reintroduced.

"The present system of paying miras to totis and talaris is defective and the same may be paid in cash, a definite rate being fixed on the extent of the holding of each raiyat or the assessment he pays. The present system is a great hardship to landowners paying large revenue. Miras may altogether be abolished and addtional inam lands granted to those village servants. Non-payment of miras to totis and talaris at 3 seers per acre each inflicts hardship on these village servants and impedes discharge of Government work by them. As 3 seers per acre to each is burdensome to the raiyat, it may be reduced to some extent and collected with the revenue in monetary value and monthly payments made to these servants.

"As in His Majesty's territory, regular cash payments may be made to totis and talaris."

Government Reply.—"Matter will be referred to the Survey Commissioner."

11. Again the Secretary in his docket No. R. 6470—R. M. 217-06-1, dated 31st December 1906, communicated for remarks the following Subject No. 175 of Dasara Representative Assembly Proceedings of 1906.

Representation.—"Raiyats do not regularly pay miras to totis and talaris, who are incoveniened thereby. Amildars may be ordered to enquire at Jamabandi time andr ecover miras from defaulting raiyats as a revenue demand or a separate scale of remuneration may be fixed for these low paid village servants."

Government Reply.—"On the application of the toti or the talavar at present, Amildar helps him to recover the miras. Matter will be further considered in conection with the draft Hereditary Village Officers' Regulation."

12. On receipt of this last communication from Government, the present Revenue Commissioner ordered the collection of all the necessary information and preparation of a complete note on the subject. It was not till 25th March 1907 that complete information on the subject was received from the Deputy Commissioners.

Section II. Origin and History of the rules at present in force.

13. Before taking up the materials furnished by the Deputy Commissioners and their opinions on the subject, the origin and history of the instructions issued in Government Notification No. 123, dated 1st August 1878, may be briefly stated here.

14. In accordance with the resolution of a committee convened by the Chief Commissioner, Mr. Bowring, in 1868 for the settlement of certain matters connected with the Revenue Survey and Inam Settlements, Col. Clerk, then Inam Commissioner was entrusted with the task of settling the remuneration of village servants other than the shanbhog and the patel, and he submitted the following proposals, which were generally concurred in by Mr. Bowring: —

1. That the office of the talari, toti and nirganti only should be retained.
2. That they should be remunerated at three rates, Rs. 4, 3 and 2 a month.
3. That Government land should be assigned rent free for the purpose, cash payments being made in the absence of such land and continued until such may be obtainable.

Colonel Anderson's opinion.

15. To give effect to this scheme, the Nagar Commissioner submitted certain statistics which showed that the cost of the revision ranged from 7·44 to as high as 16·14 on the revenues of the taluks or from 3·5 to 8 times the percentage (2%) which Mr. Bowring had fixed as the maximum amount of remuneration for this class of village servants. The scheme was abandoned as expensive and the task was entrusted to the Survey Department, in the hope that a less expensive scheme would be devised. Colonel Anderson replied that in his opinion it was not necessary to interfere with the totis in any way as they gave no service to Government worthy of being taken to account, but that in some cases it might be found necessary to add to the existing emoluments of talaris and nirgantis. He, however, advocated delay till more information was acquired on the subject.

16. In 1874 (24th March), the Chief Commissioner in his Proceedings No. 8990—R. 64, directed that the state of the minor village servants, such as the toti and talari, whose services would be required under the Village Police Scheme should be enquired into and reported on. In response thereto, Colonel Anderson, then Survey Commissioner, stated that the services of the talari, toti and nirganti were of use to the people only and that the practice of the Survey Settlement had been to interfere in no way with the existing emoluments in land or with the aya or grain payments made by raiyats for their maintenance.

Chief Commissioner's Proceedings (1875).

17. Subsequently in Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No. 9106—R. 544, dated 13th March 1875, it was stated that "the village servants, where now existing" are remunerated like the patels :—

1. From Inam land.
2. Money payments from Government.
3. Money payments from raiyats.
4. Grain or aya from the raiyats.

"(a) In many cases, there is no office land, in others even "where it exists, it has been alienated or is not held by the "officiator.

"(b) Money payments from Government or raiyats are "doubtless rare.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

"(c) Grain dues are the ordinary form in which the "existing servants of these classes are paid, but it is believed "that they are discharged irregularly and that in some instances "the raiyats evade their payment."

It was observed that it was necessary that the existing emoluments as above described, should be ascertained and recorded and that the Government had no intention whatever of interfering with the existing emoluments of these classes and that the primary object of the enquiry was simply to ascertain and record what the emoluments were. On obtaining this information it was reserved for consideration as to (1) what supplementary remuneration should, where such appears to be necessary, be assigned to talaris for the additional work proposed to be imposed upon them under the Village Police Scheme, and (2) what measures, if any, should be taken to enforce the regular payment by the raiyats of the money or grain dues they are bound to make good to these three classes of servants. Where there were no minor village servants, the Deputy Commissioners were desired to submit their views as to their appointment.

Mr. Krishna Iyengar's views.

18. Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, in submitting his views regarding the Survey Commissioner's proposals for the revision of assessment in the Gudibanda Taluk, suggested that it was desirable to fix at the time of the settlement the grain dues to be paid by the cultivators to the minor village servants. The Survey Commissioner thought that the difficulty was not so much the fixing of amount to be paid by the raiyats as the provision of some means of enforcing the payment. The officiating Chief Commissioner thereupon directed in his No. 1278—R. 21, dated 17th March 1876, that a statement should be prepared and submitted by the Deputy Commissioner in consultation with the Survey Superintendent showing the source from which the money for the purpose should be made available and the rate of fees for each of the above mentioned class of servants.

Joint proposals of Major Grant and Mr. Krishna Iyengar.

19. In accordance with the above order, Major Grant and Mr. Krishna Iyengar submitted a memo drawn up by them in the persence of a large number of parties concerned. The plan sketched by them is as follows:—

Rules of miras.—For every acre of occupied land, the talavar and the toti shall get from the occupant three seers of either paddy or ragi whether the land be dry crop, rice or garden. No land shall be exempt, because it grows crops other than the two specified. The nirganti shall receive 4 seers of grain (paddy) on each occupied acre of rice or garden land. The talavar being needful to all classes, shall get from the villagers of the non-agricultural class at the rate of one anna in the rupee of the Mohatarfa tax, if they pay Mohatarfa, and two annas per house annually in other cases. The services of the toti being purely of a revenue character, the non-agricultural classes are not called upon to contribute.

Enforcement of claim.—The Amildar shall at once entertain and summarily dispose of petitions regarding the non-payment of miras on the part of the raiyats. If the decision is in favour of the village servant the amount awarded shall be realised from the defaulting raiyat as a revenue demand and made over to the village servant.

20. With reference to the above scheme, Mr. Krishna Iyengar stated that Major Grant was first of opinion that the miras due on wet and garden lands should be higher than that due on dry lands, because the former are more profitable than the latter; but upon the Deputy Commissioner explaining that if the wet and garden lands are more profitable, the raiyats have to pay a higher rate of assessment for the same and that they run the risk of losing their crop when there is a failure of water-supply without the advantage of a remission in such seasons,

Major Grant waived his objection to the uniform rate of the payment of miras.

21 The opinions of the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur and the Nagar Divisional Commissioner on the proposed scheme are deserving of consideration and they are briefly as follows:—

Opinion of the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur (Mr. Krishna Rao).

The proposed scheme is in the end likely to prove detrimental to the interests of the village servants, of the cultivators and indirectly of the Government. The remuneration of the village servant would still depend, as at present, on the circumstances or whim of the cultivator and must necessarily be uncertain. The remedy of resort to a court is practically inaccessible. From an estimate taken of the maximum and minimum yield in two villages of Chikmagalur Taluk, with a view to see whether the amount of miras proposed would be sufficient, the former was found to be Rs. 64 divisible between two servants and the latter Re. 1 per annum, neither of which is sufficient to maintain a person. As regards the cultivator, the proposed measures would be imposing another burden on the land, the raiyat having to pay his land tax, his local cess, his irrigation cess and his toti and Kulavadi miras. It is also not very clear how totis, talaris and Nirgantis benefit a raiyat more than any other village servant and more than they serve the Government. The Government's interests too must suffer as long as its village watchman and revenue collector are ill-paid and inefficient. The views expressed by the Inam Commissioner in his letter No. 82, dated 7th January 1869, to the Chief Commissioner, of remunerating the village servants by grant of waste land are therefore sound and preferable to those now recommended.

Opinion of the Nagar Divisional Commissioner.

22. The retention of the aya system is objectionable for various reasons. Colonel Campbell proposes that a course may be adopted similar to that laid down in the case of Shanbhogs and Patels with this important exception, viz., that instead of merging the charge in the assessment and thus affecting the revenue, an additional rate of one anna in the rupee should be levied upon the assessment. Comparing the results in the Nagar Division, of adopting the proposals made by Major Grant and Mr. Krishna Iyengar, (the price of each seer of grain being computed at the average rate of half an anna) and the Commissioner's proposal to impose an additional cess of one anna in the rupee of the Survey assessment, the calculation is as follows:—

In the first case, the cost to be borne by the agricultural population on account of Totis, Talaris and Nirgantis, is Rs. 34, 44, 416. In the second case, the total amount will come up to Rs. 1,48,477.

23. The other Divisional and Deputy Commissioners concurred in the main with the scheme proposed in the joint memo, but suggested slight modifications bearing upon the quantity of miras payable to the totis, talaris and nirgantis in respect of wet and dry lands.

Chief Commissioner's Notification of 1878, applicable to Nandidrug Division.

24. The Chief Commissioner submitted his recommendation of the proposals embodied in the joint memo to the Government of India modifying the rates of miras payable and fixing the contribution from each occupant of dry land at three seers uniformly for the three classes of village servants and at four seers from the produce of wet and garden lands. The Government of India while approving generally the proposed mode of remunerating village servants expressed a doubt whether the rates were not unnecessarily high. The then Chief Commissioner thereupon directed that the scheme prepared by Major Grant and Mr. Krishna Iyengar be introduced at first into the Nandidrug Division, so that the practical working of the scheme might be tested before the system was generally extended. A Notification (No. 123, dated 1st August 1878) was issued, authorising the adoption of the rules in question for the Nandidrug Division.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

Rules of 1897, applicable to other parts of the State.

25. Notification No 1677—R 540, dated 10th August 1897, laid down rules for the districts other than those comprised in the Nandidrug Division According to it the mamul rate of miras obtaining in the locality concerned should be ascertained by a summary enquiry. When the mamul rate has been clearly established, payment of the same should be enforced whether more or less than the rates prescribed for the Nandidrug Division. If such mamul rate cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, the rates prescribed for the Nandidrug Division should be adopted.

26. Having thus given an account of the history of the rules issued under Chief Commissioner's Notification of 1878, I now proceed to give a resume of the replies received from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts as referred to in para 13 above.

SECTION III.

Opinions of Deputy Commissioners.

(a) Bangalore (Mr Sparkes).—In most villages there are only totis who are in some places called Kulvadis and in others talaris combining within themselves, without clashing the functions of kulavadis and talaris. In large villages two such servants are found. In bechirak and tank villages none exist. These servants depend for their sustenance on the miras granted to them. In some cases they hold Inam lands but these are mostly in the nature of waste with a poor yield. Accordingly deprivation of miras constitutes the deprivation of the main source of their sustenance. If talaris are to be introduced into villages, the kulvadis may be left in the enjoyment of their present miras and sufficient inams granted to the talaris freshly appointed in villages.

(b) Kolar (Mr. Puttanna Chetty).—The inams are in most cases nominal and the deprivation of miras which the totis have long enjoyed will operate as a hardship on this deserving class. If the duties of the totis towards the village community have not been properly defined the remedy is to define them and not to deprive them of the remuneration they have been getting hitherto. In the case of villages having neither totis nor talaris every one of these villages or group of them should have a talari, if the villagers are willing to pay the miras under the rules and if men for the same are available.

(c) Tumkur (Mr. Dorasawmi Iyer).—The Deputy Commissioner has only submitted the statistics called for, and not given any opinion on the subject.

(d) Mysore, (Mr. Sparkes).—If talaris are appointed in all villages and the Miras now enjoyed by the kulvadis is paid to the former as proposed in the Dasara Assembly of 1903, a large number of Kulvadis will be put to much hardship, being deprived of their miras which they have been enjoying all along. It is desirable that a talari as well as a kulvadi should be appointed for each village.

(e) Hassan (Mr. Wetherall).—In this district the service inam lands except in a few villages are not sufficient for the maintenance of the kulvadis and in some villages inam lands have not been granted at all, the miras being the kulvadis' sole remuneration. Moreover the officiator kulvadi is not often in the enjoyment of the whole service inam, the land being divided among the hissedars of the kulvadi hak, who do service by rotation, and such lands are generally left fallow on account of disputes among hissedars and frequent change of possession of the service inam lands.

The Miras is seldom regularly paid to the kulvadis by the raiyats. Notwithstanding the Miras Rules, the kulvadis, belonging to the most ignorant class seldom take proper action and content themselves with what the raiyats choose to give. It is accordingly not desirable to take away the miras allowances from kulvadis. In villages where no kulvadis exist, either kulvadis or talaris might be appointed according to the class of village servant available and service inam lands as well as miras granted to them.

(f) Shimoga (Mr. M. S. Narayana Rao).—The carrying out of the proposal to appoint talaris in all villages involves considerable expenditure which can only be met by the levy of a cess as in the Madras Presidency. Such a measure cannot be adopted in the present state of the country here. In the Sagar, Nagar and Tirthahalli Taluks and in some villages of the Sorab Taluk there are no village menial servants. The carrying on of Government work in these villages is attended with some difficulty and the time has arrived for making some effective arrangements to provide the village patels and shanbhogs with these servants.

(g) Kadur (Mr. M. Narayana Rao).—If, by mamul, the toti has been getting grain miras in addition to his inam land, which perhaps is in a hussedar's enjoyment, he may not be deprived of it now. If a village has both toti and talari, both enjoying inam lands as also miras, the toti may not be deprived of miras because there is the talari getting it. Each servant has duties to perform and mamul right may be continued. The proposal to have a toti or talari for each village to aid the patel in collection work and to watch the village is good and may be adopted if raiyats agree to pay him miras and men for the work could be had. The entertainment of talaris on a fixed pay is out of the question; but they may be given grants of land in inam area varying from 3 to 5 acres of dry land according to the revenue and population of each village. In the Koppa Taluk both these classes of village servants are unknown.

(h) Chitaldrug (Mr. Chengiah Chetty).—The kulvadis are called begars in this district and are like talaris very useful and helpful to the patels in the discharge of revenue and police duties. In every village there should generally be both kulvadis and talaris or at least the latter should be appointed in villages in which there are no kulvadis and made to get miras like them under the existing rules.

Villages having totis and talaris.

27. To form an idea as to how far the villages in the State have been equipped with totis and talaris, statistics were called for from Districts and they are embodied in the annexed statement A., from which it will be seen that there are nearly so many as 4,000 villages having neither totis or talaris.

Section IV.

Duties of totis and talaris.

28. I shall next consider the nature of the services rendered by the totis and talaris. The duties of these servants, as laid down in Revenue Manual and official records, and as observed by Buchanan to have been performed by them are as follows :-

Totis.—"The totis are the responsible watchmen of the village and its crops. They are likewise required to act as guides to Government officers and travellers of any importance and in the absence of the talari have to perform the duties of that official in addition to their own. They are remunerated by lands held free of rent or on a light assessment. In all disputes of boundaries of villages or fields their evidence is looked to as most essential" (Revenue Manual-page 61)

"The toti is a man of the Pariah caste. At the beginning of the season he collects the raiyats to attend to the work of the Battayi fields at the proper time and to plough and sow the lands. He takes care that the crops are not destroyed by stray cattle; he keeps the raiyats in readiness near the Shekdar's Cutcherry for the purpose of collecting kandayam. He runs in the night time with the post runners, carrying the torch and furnishes him with such supplies as may be requisite" (selections from the Mysore Chief Commissioner's office records published in 1864).

"The office of the toti and talari is the same. These persons hold their places by hereditary right and are the watchmen of the village. They are sent on all messages and as guides for persons travelling on public business. They watch the crops in the day time and assist the farmers to do so at night. Their most peculiar duty, however, is to ascertain the boundaries of each field and of each farmer's possession." (Buchanan—Vol I, page 188).

Talaris.—"The talari is the scout of the village. He traces robbers and thieves, watches the movements of suspicious strangers and is in fact the Police peon to the Magistrate patel. He is remunerated by rent free or jodi lands. In certain villages there are no talaris and in these cases his duties are performed by the toti" (Revenue Manual, page 61)

"This man insists upon such raiyats as are brought to the village choultry to pay the kandayam. He goes with the shanbhog to the Amildar's Cutcherry watching over the remittance from the village and takes letters to and from the shekdars, etc. He takes care that no thefts are committed in the village; he secures such cattle as are found without owners and acts for the toti when absent." (Sketches from the Mysore Chief Commissioner's office records).

29. Besides the duties enumerated in the above extracts, there are other minor services rendered to the raiyats by these village servants, e.g., the supply of slippers, thongs, etc., to the raiyats and the leading of the bridegroom's horse during marriage processions. These will be incidentally referred to later on in connection with the remuneration usually received by them from the raiyats.

30. From the nature of the duties required to be performed by their village servants, it may be seen that some of these duties are performed on account of the village community directly, while others though performed on account of Government are yet done in the interests of the village community. These have been roughly classified in the annexed Statement B.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

STATEMENT B.

Duties of kulvadis (roughly classified under three heads.)

On behalf of Government.	On behalf of Government and village community.	On behalf of villagers and village community.
(1) Acting as guides to Government officers and travellers of importance.	(1) Keeping watch over the village and tracing thieves and robbers	(1) Watching crops and securing stray cattle.
(2) Accompanying the postal runners in the night with torch in hand and getting him necessary supplies.	(2) Collecting the raiyats for batayi cultivation.	(2) Rendering service during village festivals, jatras, etc.
(3) Keeping the raiyats in readiness near the Shekdar's Cutcherry for collecting kandayam.	(3) Testifying in cases of disputes of boundaries of fields and villages	(3) Carrying messages.
(4) Accompanying the shanbhog to the Amildar's Cutcherry and watching over remittances from the village.		(4) Supplying the raiyats annually with slippers, thongs, etc.
(5) Carrying letters to and from		(5) Rendering service in marriage processions, etc., e g, leading the bridegroom's horse.
(6) Accompanying and assisting the shanbhog and shekdar during field inspection.
(7) Rendering service to the patel in the collection of kandayam	N B—(2) and (3) have become almost obsolete.

31. The case of talaris requires special consideration as there may be a doubt as to whether the services performed by them are on account of Government or village community. The following remarks of Colonel R. J. Meade in his review as Chief Commissioner on the Police Report for the year 1873 have an authoritative bearing on the subject :—

Col. Meade's remarks on the nature of the talaii's duties.

"Where villages in which talaris ought to be maintained, are at present unprovided with this class of village servants it will be the duty of the Deputy Commissioner of the District to direct their immediate entertainment and to require the raiyats to contribute for their support according to the custom that prevails on this point in the adjoining or neighbouring villages in which they now exist.

"It must be borne in mind that this is essentially a village servant class, maintained for the use and benefit of the village raiyats, and that it is but reasonable that it shall be supported by or at the cost of the latter. The Government work required of it is wholly in connection with the village and its people, and while it will be proper to confer on talaris generally service lands as hitherto of small value, they must look to the raiyats primarily for their official remuneration.

"In a few words the Government undertakes the entire remuneration of the patels, such remuneration covering all the duties of the office whether Revenue or Police. The remuneration of the talaris on the other hand lies primarily with the raiyats who must, if necessary, be compelled to perform their duty in the matter, and the appointment of a talari to every village in which one is clearly required should be at once enforced by District Officers in communication with Commissioners of Divisions."

Mr. V. P. Madhava Row's opinion.

32. The remarks of Mr. V. P. Madhava Rao, while he was Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga, regarding the necessity of organising the village service in that district are also worth referring in this connection. In his letter No. 9, dated 6th April 1888, he urged that not only revenue and police interests but also forest interests greatly suffered owing to the want of this important class of village servants. The letter further runs thus:—

"I have had frequent complaints from the patels that it is hard on them to be held responsible for unlawful fellings in forest tracts in their charge which may extend over many square miles and heavily fined for not preventing such fellings or detecting the men concerned in the fellings, when they have not even a single man to help them to patrol the jungles.

"In some instances in Sorab where I had fined the patels under the circular of the Inspector-General of Forests (of local application), I had to remit the fines on inspecting the jungles during the last Jamabandi, as I felt that it was simply impossible for the patels however influential, to keep anything like a proper watch over these jungles without the help of the talaris."

Section V.
System and scale of remuneration.

33. Having noticed the nature of the services rendered by the totis and talaris, I shall now take up the subject of their remuneration. As regards the system of 'Miras' or grain payment, it has not been possible to get complete information as to the different rates of 'Miras' that have been in vogue in different places. The following particulars have been collected from the Inspection Notes, reports and other papers (relating to a period of about 25 years from 1870, downwards) found in the Police File regarding the reorganisation of the Village Police, and they are arranged by districts below: —

TUMKUR DISTRICT.

(a) a bundle of sheaves (straw with grain).

(b) 'Mora' is a fanlike article used for cleansing grain. It may hold from 2 to 4 seers of grain.

Huliyar.—Toti and talari get 3 seers of grain and 1 hore hullu (per acre).

The Deputy Amildar in submitting to the Inspector-General of Police a report on the subject for the Huliyar Sub-Taluk in the year 1893, states that the village servants get (a) 1 hore thene hullu, (b) 1 mora of corn, small quantities of Akkadi crops (but not chillies) at the pleasure of the raiyat, and also small quantities of garden produce. Where, however, miras is recovered in Court, they get at the rate of 3 seers per acre. The objection generally is that the raiyats are unwilling to pay at the above rate on lands not cultivated during the year and also during bad years.

Chiknayakanhalli.—Toti and talari get 6 to 10 seers of ragi or even 12 seers in some places; also 1 hore hullu and also 1 hana on marriage occasions for leading the bridegroom's horse in the procession. Also at the rate of 3 seers per acre in some villages, Bilu or dead cattle forming their perquisites besides.

No. R. 6292-302—L. R. 369-10-4, DATED 31ST DECEMBER 1915.

Kunigal—Toti gets a Vakkala (i e. one Kolaga) of ragi and 1 hore hullu irrespective of the extent of land cultivated and a similar quantity for wet land. No servant gets his miras upon plough or acreage.

MYSORE DISTRICT.

Gundlupet—No uniform system as to payment of miras.

Mysore—Totis obtain no remuneration either from Government or the raiyats They however claim the right of 'Bilu' and only receive 1 or 2 seers of grain from some of the raiyats during harvest.

Mr. Abdul Khader, Deputy Commissioner of Mysore in his letter No. 140, dated 22nd May 1886, to the Chief Secretary has on this subject made the following observation for his district:—"Talaris are given by the raiyats some grains (quantity not fixed) if they go to their thrashing grounds at the time of harvest.—No regular system or rate of quantity of grain to be paid to these servants exists anywhere. The quantity of grain thus received by them cannot be ascertained. The case of totis is somewhat better. This class of servants exists in every village and the payment of miras to them is well known by the raiyats throughout the district. It has been ascertained that the totis are being paid by each cultivating raiyat a grain miras of about 2 kudus a year (1 bundle of reaped crops containing about 1 kudu of grain at the time of reaping crops and 1 kudu of grain at the time of threshing). One kudu varies according to the measurement in vogue in different places, in some places being equivalent to 4 seers and in others 5 to 8 seers. Even the payment of this rate of miras is often evaded on some pretext or other. After a careful consideration of the whole question and weighing it with the existing practice, it is very necessary that the remuneration of the village servants should be fixed at some rate or other and not left to the pleasure of the raiyats."

SHIMOGA DISTRICT.

Shikarpur.—Begars get 30 to 90 seers if they supply the raiyats with 'Muttu.' etc. In some villages there is no prescribed rate.

Talari gets 20 or 30 seers for every kudu, i e., 80 seers of seed sown, and in some places 10 seers for every Rs. 4 of revenue collected.

Benkipur—Toti no grain.

Talari 18 seers and 1 bundle of straw with corn, per plough.

Shimoga Taluk.—Talari 18 seers per plough.

Chanmagiri.—Kulvadi:—1 hore hullu, Morabhatta, 48 seers if they do Meti work and supply Muttu talari 18 seers.

KADUR DISTRICT.

Tarikere.—Kulvadi—1 hore thene hullu and in some places no miras

Talari—1 hore hullu and in some places Morabhatta

Yedahalli Sub-Taluk.—Talari—1 hore hullu and 5 kudus of grain, kudu being 2½ seers.

The Kadur Deputy Commissioner (Mr. Sparkes) in his letter No. 211, dated 12th September 1895, to the Revenue Secretary, has observed that "in the taluks of Tarikere and Kadur, the system of grain miras appears to have once existed but has been for several years past completely discontinued except in a very few villages where the village servants receive miras as a sort of personal favour and not as a remuneration at all. Even these payments are not regulated by any principle or rate but are made in such quantities as circumstances permit and which the raiyats consider the personal merits of the servants deserve, also provided the servants go to the Kana at the time when grain is measured after thrashing. In the remaining taluks the payment of grain miras does not appear to have been in vogue. The payment of dead cattle to kulvadis is considered also to be a perquisite. This has been ascertained to be an arrangement between the raiyat and the servant in the interests of mutual convenience and benefit rather than an emolument attached to the office of kulvadi, since he is expected by the raiyat to give him in return slippers, mines, etc., for agricultural purposes."

In reporting upon a petition presented by the kulvadis of Kadur kasba, the Deputy Commissioner in his letter No. 4338, dated 17—19th September 1895, to the Inspector-General of Police has made observations similar to the above :—" As regards the question of Aya it is found that this is left entirely to the charity of the raiyats and that they generally give 10 seers of grain and a large bundle of straw; also make over the dead cattle of the village to the kulvadis in return for which the kulvadi presents the raiyats who gives him 'Aya', a pair of shoes, Muttu and leather ropes but that no actual claim is made by the kulvadis and none is recognised."

CHITALDRUG DISTRICT.

In the Jamabandi details for the year 1892-93, for the Chitaldrug Taluk collected by Mr. M. S. Narayana Rao, Deputy Commissioner, he says:—"The miras that was paid to the Begar or Toti is shown as varying from a minimum of 24 seers to a maximum of 180 seers per plough, the intermediate variations being represented by 40, 48, 50, 60, 72, 88 and 96. The minimum and maximum payment for the talari is shown as 6 and 180 seers and the intermediate variations as 12, 15, 18, 20, 21, 24, 60, 68, 80 and 144. The total miras actually paid in 1892-93 is shown as 6,33,733 seers valued at Rs. 11,699 as against 4,52,583 seers valued at Rs. 9,723 payable according to Nandidrug scale. In addition to this these village servants are entitled to half the value of the skin of dead cattle from the raiyats."

Hosdurga.—Begar—4 seers of grain per plough, 1 hore thene hullu, all carcasses.

Talari—16 seers per plough.

Holalkere.—Begar—24 (or in some places 48) seers per plough, 1 hore thene hullu, 1 mora bhatta and half the proceeds of carcasses, and he has to supply the raiyat with 2 pairs of sandals, barkolu, Negasuttu and other agricultural accessories.

Talari—12 or 18 seers per plough, 1 hore thene hullu, also 1 mora bhatta.

Davangere.—Begar.—3 'Sivadus' (i.e. bundles) of straw with grain and sometimes 120 seers per plough.

Talari.—12 or 20 seers per plough.

Harihar.—Begar.—40 seers per plough.

Talari.—1 seer per rupee of revenue collected.

Hiriyur.—Begar.—240 seers per candy of 1,600 seers of produce.

Talari.—1 hore hullu, mora bhatta, i.e. grain at the raiyat's pleasure, 1 mudde ragi hittu every day from each raiyat and in some places at 20 seers per plough.

Challakere. —Begar.—128 seers or 2 khudus for 1 candy (of 1,280 seers) produce from *Bawadi Asare lands and 64 seers per candy produce for other wet and dry lands.

i. e., lands irrigated from wells.

Talari.—8 seers of grain for every kudu (64 seers) of wet garden lands and 4 seers of grain per kudu of dry land, 1 hore thene hullu, mora bhatta.

34. It will thus be seen that there is very great diversity of practice in regard to the amount of remuneration received by these village servants. Not only do the rates of miras vary from place to place from nominal quantities of grain given at the pleasure of the raiyat to so much as 180 seers per plough, but also the basis of calculation is not uniform the Miras being variously reckoned on acreage or plough or produce or assessment or even on individual considerations, as the case may be.

Quality of Maniam lands now enjoyed.

35. Besides the 'Miras' or grain payment, the village servants are also generally endowed with 'Maniam lands With regard to this source of remuneration, it will be seen from the opinions of Deputy Commissioners set forth in para 26 above, that the 'Maniam' lands at present enjoyed by them are, with rare exceptions, of inferior quality and generally lie waste, and are by themselves quite insufficient to remunerate them for their services. Further, these lands are often found divided into shares and enjoyed separately by members of their families, all of whom turn up together in many villages for service, or perform their duties by rotation System obtaining in the Madras Presidency.

36 Before proceeding to consider what should be our policy for the future, it will be instructive to review the practice prevailing in the Madras Presidency. The remuneration of village officers in the Police and Revenue Departments in this Presidency prior to the introduction of Act. IV of 1893 (Madras Village Officers Act.) was met partly by fees and other contributions from landholders, partly by a cess imposed in lieu thereof and partly by contributions from General Revenues. Act. IV of 1893 was then introduced, authorizing the levy of such cess, in any district to which it may be applied, from,

(1) all holders of land upon ryotwari tenure.

(2) holders of inams situate within the limits of a ryotwari village.

(3) holders of inam villages which for purposes of village administration are grouped with ryotwari villages.

The balance of funds constituted under the previous Acts, the proceeds of the cess imposed under this Act and contributions from General Revenues went to form the "Village Service Fund". The cess imposed was intended to be as nearly as possible equivalent to half the cost of the village service within a given area, and did not exceed one anna in the rupee of the total land revenue assessment and water-rate, and the contribution from General Revenues was fixed at an amount equivalent to the estimated proceeds of the cess imposed under the Act The total cost of village service in the Madras Presidency may then be taken to have amounted to about 12½ per cent of the land revenue assessment. If we adopt the same percentage in the Mysore State also, we should have, after deducting about 6½ per cent for the potgi or cash remuneration now paid to the patels and shanbhogs in the State, 6 per cent left towards the cost of totis, talaris, nirgantis, etc. It will be interesting to compare this amount with the 'Miras' paid by the Mysore raiyat to the toti and talari under the Nandidrug scale Even if we calculate the price of ragi at 40 seers per rupee, as it stood about 30 years ago, the value of six seers due to the toti and the talari, according to the Nandidrug scale, on every acre of land, comes to 0-2-5; and taking the average dry assessment per acre at one rupee, the value of the 'Miras' works out to about 15 per cent of the assessment This high percentage will be almost doubled if the increased prices of recent years be taken into account. The comparison becomes still more unfavourable to the Mysore raiyat when it is also considered that, whereas in the Madras Presidency half the cost of such remuneration comes from General Revenues, the 'Miras' to the toti and talari in the State presses on the raiyat exclusively.

Madras and Mysore compared.

Revision of village service in Madras Presidency.

37. Even the village cess levied from raiyats in the Madras Presidency appears to have been recently abolished and the constitution and remuneration of the village service is being entirely revised. The main principles underlying this revision appear to be that a Toti or Talari should get a stipend of not less then Rs. 4 per mensem and that no rural areas should remain unprovided with at least one of these village servants. As there may be numerous small villages for which Government cannot afford to pay the full amount of Rs. 4 for a separate servant, or find sufficient work for him, it is proposed to club together such villages so as to secure about Rs. 2,000 for the combined revenue of the amalgamated villages, provided at the same time that the distance between village sites or inhabited areas does not exceed 1½ miles. In the case of inhabited villages, grouping is permitted even though the above distance limit is exceeded. The actual number of totis and talaris employed for each village or group is determined according to the following scales:—

(a) Totis Beriz	Number of totis
Under Rs. 2,000	1
Between „ 2,000 and 4,000	2
„ „ 4,000 and 8,000	3
„ „ 8,000 and 16,000	4
„ „ 16,000 and above	5

(b) Talaris For a population of between	Talari.
200 and 1,500	1
1,500 and 3,000	2
3,000 and 4,500	3
4,500 and above	4

The reason for fixing the number of totis with reference to Beriz and that of talaris with reference to population is to be found in the fact that the duties of the talari are essentially police in their nature, while the toti attends only to affairs connected with land. The duties of toti and talari in Madras Presidency are briefly noted below for facility of reference.

Duties of toti and talari in Madras Presidency.

38. The Talari is intended for police duties under the orders of the head of the village. His proper function is the watch and ward of his village. He should afford all assistance in his power to the regular Police by giving prompt information as to offences and offenders, aiding in the execution of criminal processes, etc. He is to serve all processes issued by the village Magistrate, to attend upon him during the trial of petty cases and to act as guard over persons confined in the village choultry. The toti or vetti also is a village peon acting under the orders of the headman. He is employed in executing processes for the collection of revenue and serving all processes issued by the Village Munsiff and acting under his orders in the execution of decrees. His services are also utilised by the Karnam whom he accompanies during the inspection of crops and boundary marks and the measurement of lands. He also carries messages; when heavy rain falls, he should watch the bunds of tanks and channels and immediately report any appearance of danger. Both the talari and the toti or vetti are employed to carry and guard the remittance of revenue from the village to the Taluk Treasury. They have also other miscellaneous duties to perform, e. g. in impounding trespassing cattle, reporting cases of births or deaths in the villages, etc.

SECTION VI.

Concluding remarks and suggestions.

Miras viewed from the raiyat's standpoint.

39. In Mysore there seems to be a wide-spread feeling of dissatisfaction among the raiyats at the rates of 'Miras' payable under the Nandidrug scale. The explanation for this state of feeling is not far to seek.

40. The ancient constitution of each village was one of complete autonomy. It was a self-contained unit of the body politic; and the twelve officers of the village (vide margin) comprising the 'Barabaluthi' were compensated for their services either in allotments of 'Maniam' from the communal land or fees in cash or kind at fixed rates from every raiyat in the village. In return therefor, the community as a whole and each raiyat individually had a claim to exact certain services. The political changes, conquests, usurpations or revolutions in the country did not penetrate into the internal administration of the village or affect the mutual rights and obligations of the villagers and the 'Barabaluthi' servants. It is unnecessary to dwell here on the causes that have tended to disintegration in the village community and led to the steady decline and disappearance, one after another, of the ties which bound the village servants to the village community and the passing of the control of its communal affairs to the Central Government. Among the constituents of the 'Barabaluthi,' the patel and the shanbhog were necessarily the first to be utilised and paid for by Government. The importance of the toti and the talari for efficient village administration was not overlooked by Government, but as a rule these servants were merged in and identified with the village headman and no difficulty was for a long time experienced in getting the required services performed by the existing village servants and also the menial classes of inhabitants liable to 'Bitti' and 'Begari service.' It took a long time for the cleavage between the village officers and the village community to come into full prominence and the breach between the village servants and the community soon followed in its wake ending in the differentiation of the duties of the former into such as are rendered on behalf of Government and those that benefit the community; and the latter object to pay the 'Miras' when the servants neglect their interests.

41. Although the work required of the village servants by Government may, to some extent, be regarded as rendered in the interests of the villagers themselves, still in view of the fact that the complete control of the services of these village servants has been gradually taken away from them, it is but natural that they should grumble at having to maintain them chiefly at their own expense and especially at the old rates of 'Miras' being rigorously enforced against them. In former times, when the villagers withheld the 'Miras' the claims of the village servants were naturally enquired into and decided upon by the village 'Panchayat' who enforced the payment of 'Miras' in proper cases as a matter of compromise. But this must have been naturally less disagreeable to the villagers than the summary enquiry of the Amildar at the present day with his order for the recovery of the 'Miras' amount as an arrear of land revenue.

42. To add to this, with the rise in the prices of foodgrains and the concomitant increase in the cost of cultivation, and with a strong Revenue Law admitting of no easy evasion of payment of assessment the raiyat finds that the grain payment, though the quantity is not perhaps more than he paid formerly, is more burdensome to him now, and he fails to see exactly why he should be saddled with this additional levy, especially when he cannot command the services of the servants to the same extent as before. Further the average produce of lands has not been as good as before in several parts of the State. This may perhaps be due to the natural exhaustion of the soil after ages of continued cultivation without recouping for diminished fertility by means of manures and artificial fertilisers, or to the steady increase of fresh and less productive lands taken up for cultivation with the inevitable decrease in the average margin of profits of cultivation. The condition of the raiyat who has to pay the same mamul rates of 'Miras' with a diminished produce of his lands deserves therefore sympathetic consideration.

Whether every village should have both toti and talari.

43. Another question requiring consideration is whether the raiyat should be subjected to payment of 'Miras' to toti, talari and nirganti as well irrespective of the size and importance of the villages or the duties required of them The non-existence of totis or talaris in some of the villages, not only impedes the proper performance of Government work but is also inconvenient in the interests of the villagers themselves. It may therefore be readily granted that no village should be left unprovided with one or other of these village servants. But whether each village should have both a toti and talari would seem to depend entirely upon the magnitude and importance of the village. In small villages, it should be sufficient to have only one of them, who will combine in himself as far as possible the functions of both these classes of village servants. Larger villages may have a toti as well as a talari.

Question of remuneration.

44. The most difficult question however is to arrive at some satisfactory data for fixing the remuneration of these servants and provide a procedure for enforcing its proper payment and the satisfactory performance by the village servants of their duties towards the raiyats or the village community. As has been explained above, such remuneration is taking the shape of a monthly cash salary paid from the General Revenues in the Madras Presidency. This must have the inevitable effect of converting them into casual servants of Government without any binding ties to the village or a hereditary devotion to the office. As observed by Government in Proceedings No 7600-7—Cir. 229, dated 28th December 1881, "grain remuneration to "the minor village servants is intended to secure more efficient "work from them to the raiyats who contribute the grain fees "and not to make them merely more efficient Government ser-"vants. It is an essential feature of the system of grain fees "that the raiyats who are called upon to contribute them should "be at liberty to withhold them if they can show that they have "not been properly served by the servants concerned in matters "relating to their functions as village servants." I would accordingly hesitate to recommend the adoption of a policy of cash stipends for Mysore. The disadvantages of such a step are many and far reaching in their effects. The old sentiments of heredity and local ties will be rudely shaken, and these servants will no longer be looked upon by the villagers as part and parcel of the village community but merely as paid servants of Government and their place and functions in the economy of village administration will be wiped out. Their services to the village community are at least as important as those performed on account of Government. After all the salary they will get is only Rs. 4 a month or 2 annas a day which is below what a country labourer can hope to get for his daily wages. Thus while it becomes a monthly cash pay, it has not even the merit of being tempting enough to keep the men permanently in the village.

45. On the other hand the present system of payment by 'Miras' collected from the raiyats alone is also found to be defective in certain respects. This mode of remuneration is dependent on the goodwill of the villagers; and although it can be enforced in the last resort against the raiyats at fault, the village servants who entirely depend on 'Miras' for livelihood cannot but be oppressed with a feeling of precariousness. If to rectify this defect it is proposed that Government should themselves levy the 'Miras' or its cash equivalent from the raiyats and regularly pay the servants, this remedy also will work some real hard-ship on the raiyats, who will have no direct and automatic control over the village servants in the performance of the services which is the raison detre of the levy of such 'Miras.' The proper course will be to devise a method whereby the village servants may continue to have their place in the traditions of the village, without however being left entirely dependent for their livelihood on the will and pleasure of the raiyats, and at the same time look up to the villagers directly for their 'Miras.' In other words it must be our policy not to disturb the existing relations between these servants and the raiyats and at the same time carefully guard the interests of these village servants who form such useful auxiliaries both to the machinery of Government and to the village administration. I think the following proposals are calculated to secure this end:—

Final proposals.

46 (a) It is not necessary to recognise any distinction between the duties to be performed by the toti and the talari so far as Goverment work is concerned. This however need not affect the customary relations between the villagers and the several classes of village servants such as the toti or madiga and the talari. The work of the Nirganti is of a special kind and need not be mixed up with the duties of other servants. But where the village is small, there is no objection to their being combined in the same individual.

Mode of remuneration.

(b) The remuneration of these servants will consist of—

(i) 'Miras' payable by the raiyats

(ii) 'Manam' lands, as at present, their extent being increased wherever they are insufficient or fresh lands being sanctioned where none exist, and

(iii) cash allowances to be contributed from the General Revenues where necessary.

As regards (i), 'Miras' in the shape of grain should be fixed with reference to the price of grain assumed for purposes of revision settlements and should be capable of being revised if necessary at long intervals; further it should be regulated on the basis of land assessment and need not exceed in value 3 to 4 per cent of land revenue. But its actual levy or collection, in whatever way it may be calculated, may be left to be mutually adjusted among the village servants and raiyats, with the proviso however that, where they disagree, the Amildar should award only the quantity of grain calculated on the scale to be fixed as above or its cash equivalent at the standard price fixed for the locality, making such deduction therefrom as may be proper for the village servants' neglect, if any, to do the customary duties due towards the raiyats. The Amildar's decision in this respect will be summary and final.

Duties of village servants

(c) The duties to be performed by these village servants on behalf of Government should be well defined as in the Madras Presidency, but these services should not be expected to require their whole time.

Number of servants for each village to be regulated.

(d) As regards the number of servants to be entertained for each village, I do not advocate the grouping of villages as in the Madras Presidency based on 'Beriz' or population. Our principle ought to be to have at least one servant for each village unit (i.e., an Ash village inclusive of hamlet or dakhle village.) Where the village unit is too small to permit of a reasonable remuneration for a separate village servant, or one such is not procurable the village patel should be able to arrange for the performance of Government duties by a servant of his own, and may be granted, on this account, the equivalent of items (ii) and (iii) mentioned in clause (b) above, the villagers being relieved from contribution of 'Miras.'

The number of village servants may be regulated as follows:—

(i) Where the village unit does not exceed Rs. 1,500 in land revenue or 500 in population one servant ought to suffice.

(ii) For a village with land revenue exceeding Rs. 1,500 and up to Rs 4,000 or population up to 1,500, two servants may be employed; and in case of still larger villages, the number of servants may be increased according to circumstances and it may then be possible to have even a whole-time servant to attend to the duties of Government in addition to one or two village servants paid and employed as usual.

The scale of emoluments.

(c) Our scale ought to be so regulated that a village servant may get from all sources not less than 30 to 40 rupees per annum according to localities, of which half at least should be contributed by Government whether in the shape of Maniam lands or cash stipends. The existing 'Maniams' should be reserved exclusively for the village servants as far as possible, and where the persons in enjoyment are not rendering the village service such lands may be disfranchised. At every change in the personnel of village servants, the 'Maniam' lands should be examined and it should be seen that they are kept intact without sub-division, alienation, etc., and the village servants should not be allowed to create any rights over them.

47. The cost involved in the above proposals cannot be accurately determined except after a detailed examination of the existing village units with reference to their actual requirements and of the value of the present 'Maniam' lands. A rough approximation may however be arrived at as follows. For our present purposes we may assume that the total number of village servants to be thus remunerated may come to 20,000 excluding the main and insignificant villages for which separate servants are not necessary or cannot be provided, and that the 'Beriz' of the 'Maniam' lands now in the enjoyment of the village servants, may amount on an average to Rs. 3 per head. Taking the average remuneration payable to these servants at the outside limit of Rs. 40 per annum, half of which might be expected to be contributed by the raiyats as 'Miras', there remains Rs. 20 per head to be provided for by Government. This may for reasons already shown be preferably in the shape of 'Maniam' lands yielding an annual income to that extent. Assuming the income from these lands at 2½ times the assessment, which is by no means too high, the average 'Beriz' of the 'Maniam' lands will have to be Rs. 8. Deducting therefrom the 'Beriz' on the Maniam lands now in the enjoyment of these servants which has been assumed above at Rs. 3 per head, we may have to provide afresh additional lands with an average Beriz of Rs. 5 per head, or, on the whole, lands carrying a total assessment of one lakh of rupees. To the extent such lands are not immediately available, the remuneration may have to be met from the General Revenues, but this cost will gradually decrease as suitable lands become available for being assigned as inam. Even if we have to meet the whole cost from the General Revenues a most unlikely contingency the total aggregate expenditure would be Rs. 2½ lakhs or about 2½ per cent of the present land revenue. This cannot be considered too heavy in view of the increased efficiency which will be attained in the rural administration and of the handsome remuneration and status secured to this large body of servants whose interests have been so long neglected but who are so essential to the well-being of the State and the village communities.

Conclusion.

48. I may now be permitted to conclude with a brief recapitulation of what is contained in the foregoing pages. Commencing with an introductory reference to the recent correspondence that led up to this note (paras 1 to 12) I have pointed out that the question has been under investigation by the Inspector-General of Police and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts and the Revenue and Survey Commissioners for nearly twenty years. Then I have glanced back and tried to trace the origin and history of the discussions which led ultimately to the promulgation of the existing 'Miras' Rules in the Nandidrug Division and their subsequent extension to the other Divisions, by which provision was made for the payment of these servants by grain fees levied from land-holding raiyats at a uniform rate of 3 seers per acre for each class of servant (paras 14 to 25).

I have then referred to the various duties which these servants are expected to perform and attempted to classify them according as they are performed on behalf of Government or of the village community; and tried to make it clear that their duties to the village communities are at least as important as their Government duties and that the principles underlying the obligation of the latter to contribute to the subsistence of these servants, were in their nature thoroughly sound (paras 28 to 32). I have then touched upon the absence of any uniform practice at present in the various localities either in the nature of the duties performed by these servants or in the remuneration paid to them by means of 'Maniam' lands and grain fees, and upon the difficulty reported to have been experienced by our District Officers in enforcing the payment of the 'Miras' dues which in their turn are objected to by the raiyats on the ground of their being excessive and of the village servants neglecting with impunity to perform their reciprocal services (paras 33 to 35).

The opinions of the Deputy Commissioners and other officers advancing various proposals for the solution of this question have then been briefly stated and reviewed. The rules in force and under contemplation in the Madras Presidency have been detailed at some length as affording material for deciding upon our future action and it has been pointed out how in Madras the policy has been gradually adopted, of treating these servants as wholetime servants of the State paid exclusively by it and owning no allegience to the village community. I have ventured to urge the necessity for the restoration of the ancient village institutions by keeping up the interdependence of the village communities and the village servants, while maintaining at the same time the right of Government to enforce the obligation of the latter to render efficient and substantial service to the State (paras 40 to 45).

I have then tried to explain the case from the standpoint of the Mysore raiyats in regard to the complaint as to their being compelled to find at present the greater part of the remuneration and that at a scale which is disproportionately heavy.

After discussing the general principles that may be adopted in Mysore in shaping our policy, I have formulated certain proposals for the consideration of Government, for the reconstitution of the toti and talari services and the regulation of their remuneration partly by 'Maniam' lands and stipendary allowances from Government and partly by grain fees from the raiyats at a uniform and reasonable scale (para 46).

The economic aspect of the question has also been briefly examined with the data at present available and I have tried to show how this much-desired reorganization may be effected without incurring a prohibitive cost. I venture to hope that the information I have thus gathered together may enable Government to dispose of this important question finally.

ACCOMPANIMENT No. 3.

Unofficial Note dated the 26th April 1911, from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey and Settlement in Mysore (Mr. D. Shama Rao).

23. The elaborate note submitted by the Revenue Commissioner contains all the available information on the subject in a succinct and systematic form. The question of remunerating the minor village servants, viz., 'totis, talavaris and nirganties, is one that has engaged the attention of Government from the time of the introduction of survey settlement. During the days of the British Commission, a good deal of correspondence on the subject transpired between the Survey and Settlement Commissioner and the Government; the final opinion given by the Survey and Settlement Commissioner Colonel W. C. Anderson is as follows:—

Letter No. 718, dated 2nd July 1878.

I do not think it would be at all advisable to levy extra money cess for the remuneration of village servants; the cess must be uniform, in one case it would be less remunerative to the village servants than their customary grain emoluments are and in others more so.

In my opinion it is not advisable to lay down any fixed rules for the payment of these village officers' emoluments either in grain or money; it is better in every way to leave ancient custom to be adhered to, seeing that the customary emoluments will be generally accepted as sufficient. Moreover, they will generally be proportionate to the value of the service done which may vary at different times and places even in the same Talooka.

"In my opinion the relative positions of the village servants and the raiyats will be best left as far as possible to mutual adjustment between the parties interested and this state of the case appears stronger in the view of providing for the early advant of a Native administration in Mysore.

"Nowhere will the village system be found more perfect than in the Mahratta Districts of the Bombay Presidency; the position of the village servants and difficulties about their emoluments have been constantly discussed in the last thirty years, but a compulsory collection and payment of them by the State has never been advocated. There is no dout, that the extra cess would be collected, but it may be very open to doubt it the proceeds would find its way to the persons for whom it was intended.

"The village community is essentially a Native institution and the less the details are interfered with the better; we may aid them by providing a simple ultimate legal remedy in case of a failure in working, now that law has everywhere taken the place of order (hukum) but the less we meddle in the daily procedure of village life the more perfectly will its vitality be retained."

Although Col. Anderson thus advocated a strict adherence to custom in the matter of remunerating the minor village servants, the rules of 1878 were issued and made applicable to the Nandidrug Division as an experimental measure before it can be made applicable generally to the whole Province. The matter was left there until 1897, when as the result of the representations made by some minor village servants and of the discussions in the Representative Assembly, Government passed an order, No. 1668-76—R. 539, dated 10th August 1897, the main object of which was also to adhere to custom. According to this order, the rate of Miras should be fixed as per Mamul in the locality: where the mamul cannot be ascertained by summary enquiry, the rates for the Nandidrug Division in 1878 should be adopted.

24. Till now therefore, immemorial custom in the matter has not been disturbed, except perhaps in the Nandidrug Division, and is taken as the guide in settling disputes between the minor village servants and the raiyats. Even in the Nandidrug Division, speaking from my personal experience, I may say that the rates fixed in 1878 have not been generally adopted, but the raiyats and village servants adjust the matter between themselves according to custom. It is only when complaints are brought before the Revenue Authorities that the rates fixed in 1878 are enforced.

25. The proposal now before Government is to depart from the long established usage and bring into force some general scheme for the remuneration of the minor village servants. The reasons that call for the change are said to be the following:—

(1) The raiyats find it difficult to pay Miras at the rates fixed for the Nandidrug Division as the prices of food grains have considerably increased and as the yielding capacity of agricultural lands has decreased.

(2) The remuneration received by the minor village servants is much more than could be reasonably paid for the services they render to village community.

(3) In some cases, these servants receive more than what the patels get in the shape of potgi.

(4) They have got Inam lands besides Miras and are therefore doubly, benefited.

(5) The remuneration payable to these servants ought to be met by Government, and the raiyats should not be asked to contribute, as these servants are maintained for Government work.

(6) It is not possible to appoint these servants where none existed till now, as the raiyats are unwilling to pay Miras; at the same time, it is necessary to appoint them to facilitate the collection and other work.

(7) The remuneration that is received in some places is so small that no body cares to do the work.

(8) The raiyats do not pay the Miras regularly and therefore the servants do not work.

These are some of the main arguments brought forward at the meetings of the Representative Assembly and an examination of them may not be out of place here.

26. Regarding (1), (2), (3), and (4), about the high pitch of the rates, I beg to point out first that in meetings of the Assembly, representations on this subject are mostly one-sided, as the members representing are either raiyats or village officers or both. There is scarcely any one to take up the cause of the poor minor servants, who, if consulted, will surely represent their difficulties in collecting the Miras and the inadequacy of the same for the services rendered in these days of high prices for labour. If the prices of food grains have gone up, the cost of living has also increased and with it wages of labour. The emoluments having been fixed by custom, if they are in receipt of large emoluments, it must be inferred that they are expected to do proportionately heavy work for the village comunity. The inam lands allotted to them are not always of the best kind and it so happens sometimes that on account of the multifarious duties these servants have to perform they do not find sufficient time or means to cultivate the lands, which are therefore left Banjar. Instances are also met with where the inam lands are held by persons different from those doing duty, and the latter have nothing else to look upon than their Miras. Taking all such circumstances into consideration, I think it is not profitable to question the propriety of what has been brought about by force of long established custom nor is it possible to evolve a general rule from this mass of diverse circumstances changing from village to village.

27. As to whether the remuneration should be paid by Government or by the raiyats, I beg to submit that the burden has all along been by custom imposed and borne by raiyats. It is true that the servants in question do some Government work, but they also do the work of the village community and of individual members of the community: and it is in the interest of the community that the remuneration of such servants should remain in their own hands, so that they may adjust the remuneration according to the services rendered, by a Panchayat, if necessary. Payment by the raiyats will make the servants feel their dependence upon the former, but direct payment by Government will estrange them from the raiyats, which is not desirable. Moreover, if Government were to pay these servants, the funds to meet the extra expenditure must again come from the raiyats in the shape of an extra cess as in the Madras Presidency. Whether the remuneration is paid by Government or by the raiyat, the final result is all the same: the burden will ultimately fall upon raiyat. It is therefore more advantageous both to the raiyat and the village servant to continue the present practice of paying Miras.

28. In places where totis or talaris do not exist, fresh appointments may be made if the raiyats consent to pay Miras at a reasonable rate not exceeding that prescribed for the Nandidrug Division. Waste land also may, if available, be allotted as inam and the service made hereditary. Places where such servants do not exist are chiefly the malnad villages where population is sparse and labour dear. In these villages it may be difficult to find men for the work and also to find suitable lands to be allotted as inam. Some inconvenience may perhaps be felt by patels for want of the minor servants, but they will have to get on as they did hitherto. The non-existence of the totis and talaris indicates, as Col. Grant has observed, the absence of any need for them in the localities concerned. The peculiar situation and the circumstances of Malnad villages appear to be the chief cause of there being no minor village servants from the commencement. Even if such servants should be entertained, they will be of little use to the village community, owing to the scattered position of their dwellings and holdings. It is not, therefore, advisable to undertake any expensive scheme to create convenience for a small number of village officers.

29. In small villages with but a few houses, the Miras will certainly be very little and not tempting enough for a person to undertake the duties of toti or talari. But Government cannot undertake to make up the deficiency, as it is distinctly a matter to be settled between the raiyats and the servants. If no one comes forward to do the duties, the best plan will be to get the work done by the toti or talwar of the adjoining village and give him the Miras due as is now done in "Becharak" and other small villages.

30. There is not much force in the contention that the raiyats do not pay Miras regularly because an easy method of recovery has already been prescribed. The claims of the servants will be disposed of by summary enquiry in the Revenue Department and the Miras recovered as a revenue demand.

31. In the light of the foregoing observations, I am inclined to think that no change in the system is necessary and the safest course is to leave it to be guided by custom as hitherto, (enforcing the Rules of 1878, when complaints of non-payment of Miras, are preferred). This was the opinion of Col. Anderson and also that of Col. Grant.

32. If however, Government are not satisfied with the existing system and desire to secure uniformity of practice all over the State, they must be prepared to set apart a portion of the revenue for the remuneration of the minor village servants. The system of allotting lands as inam cannot be carried out with success for several reasons, chief of which is that suitable lands for the purpose cannot be found in all villages. When the remuneration of village patels by the allotment of lands was tried in the late Nandidrug Division during the British Commission, the scheme did not work, and the same result will attend similar schemes. The best method of remuneration is payment in cash. Anything less than Rs. 4 per mensem or Rs. 48 per annum, will not be sufficient for any man in these days, and adopting this as the minimum, the total cost will come to an enormous sum, at an average rate of two servants for each village The value of inam lands at present held by the minor village servants is not known. Taking it roughly to be about Rs. 50,000, Government will still have to find over several lakhs of rupees, in addtion to what is being paid to the shanbhogs and patels, whose Potgi has already come to about 8 lakhs of rupees, which will increase gradually along with the introduction of Revision Settlements and the decennial revision of existing potgi. If the raiyats have to contribute half towards the remuneration of the minor servants, as suggested by the Revenue Commissioner, the imposition of even a cess of half an anna in the rupee of assessment is hardly sufficient to bring in the amount. This extra cess is sure to be felt as a burden by the raiyats, as it will be in addition to the Local and Irrigation Cesses, the latter of which is, in the Revision Settlements, a separate levy, not being merged in assessment as heretofore. I do not think that any scheme for the remuneration of the minor servants can be successfully carried out, unless Government are prepared to meet this heavy expenditure for the purpose every year. As stated by Col. Grant in this unofficial note, dated 8th November 1905, the matter resolves itself into one of expense merely. If the cost is not considered by Government as prohibitive, some general scheme may be drawn up and tried, as an experiment, in one or two taluks, before the same is made generally applicable.

33. I have to apologise for the delay in returning this file. The subject being of great importance, I have taken some time to think over it.

ACCOMPANIMENT No. 4.

(Unofficial note dated the 27th May 1912, from the Inspector-General of Police Mr. C. Srikanteswara Aiyar.)

The subject is one of vital importance to the village servants no less than the two raiyats concerned and all the discussion in the Representative Assembly and elsewhere has been one-sided, solely from the point of view of the raiyats. With our Revenue System, miras has the advantages and validity derived from immemorial custom and has been answering the purpose as well as any mode of remuneration can be expected to do. Cash payments for what was once dealt with in kind, tried in other cases (E. G. Muzrai Thasdiks, allowance etc.) have not always given general satisfaction. Further, on principale, so long as current rates of settlement continue and in some taluks we have also announced revised rates which have also shown increases, it would not be fair to levy any cess or alter or modifiy the survey gurantee. Col. Grant's and Mr. D. Shama Rao's views, supported by previous history and practice, are sound even unto this day. To think of altering the existing well-understood and by no means over-burdensome system of remuneration, without being prepared to meet it out of General Revenues, would seem almost an impracticability. I concur with Mr. Shama Rao, in everythitg what he says, in his note of 26th April 1911.

Petition dated 20th October 1915, from Mr. A. Ramanna, Advocate, Mysore City, stating that he would be a great loser, if the rates of arrears of assessments fixed for the Malvalli Taluk 22 years back, are now to be adopted for the settlement about to be introduced into his inam village of Honnalegere in the same taluk, and praying that either the rates be raised so as to suit the existing conditions or that the settlement proposed to be introduced in his village be guaranteed only for the unexpired period of the current settlement of the taluk so as to admit of its being revised at the time of the revision settlement of the taluk.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. 88, dated 17th November 1915, from the Superintendent, Revenue Survey and Settlement in Mysore, stating, that for reasons given, it is not desirable to increase the rates to be introduced in his village above those of the rest of the taluk, but that Mr. Ramanna's alternative prayer for a short term settlement of his village seems less objectionable.

Order No. R. 6059-68—L. S. 18-15-4, dated 21st December 1915.

Government agree with the Survey Superintendent that it is inadvisable to adopt any new rates with respect to a single village.

They consider that there is no objection to sanction the alternative prayer of the Inamdar, and are accordingly pleased to direct that the rates to be introduced in Honnalegere be guaranteed only for the unexpired portion of the period of the original settlement of the Government villages in the Malvalli Taluk.

The representation on the same subject in the Assembly of 1915.

Order No. Fl. 2704-53—G. F. 64-15-1, dated 16th December 1915.

The Members of the Mysore Representative Assembly have been repeatedly urging Government to extend the scheme of State Life Insurance to the general public and in the last Session of the Assembly, the Members were unanimously in favour of the proposal.

The Economic Conference has also discussed this question. The Industries and Commerce Committee to which the subject was referred by the Economic Conference considered a note on the subject prepared by Mr. J. S. Chakravarti. The Committee thought that the note dealt with the whole question in a lucid and convincing manner and agreed with the opinion expressed therein that State Insurance in Mysore should be extended to the public.

2. After carefully considering the subject, Government have decided, as announced in the Dewan's concluding speech at the last Representative Assembly, to extend the State Life Insurance Scheme to the non-official public. The general lines of the scheme applicable to the public will be as follows:—

(1) The Public Scheme will be kept separate from the officials' Scheme, but for the present managed by the same Committee and Office.

(2) The accounts and books will be separately maintained and balanced. The work of the Public Branch will be conducted in such a manner that at any time it may be entirely transferred to a new and distinct office.

(3) For the present endowment policies payable at 55 or 60 years and whole-life policies will be issued. But other suitable forms will also be adopted after due investigation.

(4) The rates will be calculated in the analogy of rates charged in well-conducted companies working in British India so as to keep the concern self-supporting after allowing a margin for payment of medical fees, the entire expenses of office management and payment of advertisement and commission charges, if any.

(5) Government will retain the power of revising the rates whenever necessary, but such revision will affect only policies issued after that date.

(6) The maximum and minimum bonuses on any single life will for the present be Rs. 2,500 and Rs. 100, respectively.

(7) Only persons who are natives of the State or are permanent residents therein are to be eligible for insurance.

(8) Premia will be made payable monthly, half-yearly, or yearly, some period of grace being allowed in each case.

No. Fl. 2704-53— G. F. 64-15-1, dated 16th December 1915.

(9) Medical men qualified to give certificates will be specially nominated for each district.

(10) After a year's working the office and management may be reorganised.

3. The Insurance Committee is requested to submit at a very early date for the approval of Government a set of suitable rules and tables of rates so that the Scheme may, if possible, come into operation by the 1st January 1916. The Committee will also send up suggestions regarding the agency and procedure to be adopted for submission of proposals, medical examinations of proposers and collection of premia, etc., for the present, and eventually when the work may attain larger proportions.

The Secretary, State Life Insurance Committee, is authorised to entertain the temporary establishment required for the present for drawing up rules and tables and other preliminary work at a cost not exceeding Rs. 100 per mensem for a period of six months in the first instance, the extra amount required being met from the savings in the provision of Rs. 5,200 in the current year's budget under 18—1—Education, 9 scholarships, (v) Actuarial Scholarship.

Order No. 4200-15—Ml. 19-15-18, dated 10th December 1915.

It has been brought to the notice of Government that in the matter of the adjustment of feeding charges of impounded cattle, the practice of requiring the pound-keepers to advance the feeding charges out of their private funds in the first instance, previls, at present, in most of the Municipalities in the State.

2. Government observe that the practice is irregular and direct that it should be discontinued wherever it exists.

3. The attention of the Deputy Commissioners of Districts and the Presidents of Municipalities is invited to Rule 231 of the Municipal Account Manual, laying down the procedure to be followed in this connection and they are requested to make arrangements for the rule being strictly followed in future.

Letter No. 43, dated the 1st October 1915, from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Improvement of the City of Mysore, submitting the report on the working of the Board during the year 1914-15.

Letter No. 4445—S. A. 495, dated the 13th December 1915, from the Comptroller, submitting the final accounts of the City of Mysore Improvement Fund for 1914-15.

Order No. 4538-89—Ml. 72-15-6, dated 22nd December 1915.

Recorded.

2. According to Government Order No. 6862-8—Ml. 77-07-6, dated the 17th January 1908, and Government Order No. 8071-3—Ml. 76-14-39, dated the 14th April 1915, the amount which should be available for the Board's operations (including the Board's income from miscellaneous sources and the opening balance) is Rs. 3,75,000. The report and the Comptroller's accounts, however, show that a sum of Rs. 3,99,095, was available during the year, a sum of Rs. 2,95,000 having been placed at the Board's disposal from State Funds in addition to the other sources of the Board's revenue. The excess grant is unauthorized. The Comptroller's attention is drawn to paragraph 2 of Government Order No. 4831-44—Ml. 63-14-6, dated the 21st December 1914, and he is requested to state how the mistake arose and also to note that in future the annual grant from State Funds on account of the Board's operations is regulated in strict accordance with the instructions conveyed therein.

3. The year's expenditure and the closing balance were Rs. 3,76,788 and Rs. 22,307 against Rs. 2,65,381 and Rs. 71,338 respectively, of the previous year.

4. In addition to the comprehensive drainage programme of 1912, Government prescribed in the earlier part of the year under review a programme of special improvement works which demanded immediate attention. No less than 41 estimates in all aggregating Rs. 3,82,434 were passed by the Board against 18 in the year previous. Of these 12 estimates aggregating Rs. 3,24,348 were in respect of the programme of 1914. The more important of the special improvement works the execution of which devolved on the Board were the formation of extensions and improvement to the market square.

5. Including 9 properties declared for acquisition during the year, the total number of cases to be attended to was 1,395. Awards were passed in 200 cases, the amount of the compensation awarded being Rs. 63,610, 8 cases were referred to the Civil Court under Section 30 and 1 under Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Regulation. The total expenditure incurred under acquisition was Rs. 1,08,096 against Rs. 58,594 in the previous year. The number of properties pending acquisition proceedings is still large, and this part of the Chairman's work requires greater attention.

6. Nine new works and 18 incomplete works of previous years were attended to and an expenditure of Rs. 2,33,598 was incurred thereon, the bulk of the expenditure being on account of sewerage and drainage works. Since the year 1912-13 when the underground sewage system was introduced, about 99,902 running feet, of sewers have been laid, 698 manholes and 25 flush tanks have been constructed and about 1,200 house connections provided.

No. 4538-89—ML. 72-15-6, DATED 22ND DECEMBER 1915.

7. A sum of Rs. 9,130 was advanced by the Board to 41 persons for building houses against Rs. 5,505 in the previous year. The recovery is not however quite satisfactory inasmuch as a sum of Rs. 7,925 was recovered out of the overdue instalments aggregating Rs. 16,201.

8. Government are glad to note that there was increased activity in every direction during the year. The thanks of Government are due to the Chairman and the Trustees for the same.

(iv) Increments earned by the 10 clerks on probation noted in the margin above during the period of probation may be allowed, as the Financial Department has no objection thereto, on the ground that these clerks were placed on probation only to test their suitability for the First Division clerkships and that they have rendered approved service therein.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF SPECIAL RATES OF WOUND, INJURY AND FAMILY PENSIONS TO COMBATANTS AND FOLLOWERS OF THE MYSORE IMPERIAL SERVICE LANCERS AND TRANSPORT CORPS.

Wound and Injury Pensions and Gratuities.

1. Wound pensions when admissible.—Wound pensions (and gratuities in the case of Commissioned Officers) are granted for wounds received in action, or caused by a person from whom, in the performance of Military duty, a risk is incurred equal to that encountered on active service.

2. Injury pensions when admissible.—Injury pensions (and gratuities in the case of Commissioned Officers) are granted for injuries received in the performance of Military duty, other than those covered by paragraph 1.

Injury pensions are also granted to those who become unfit for further service owing to:—

i. Illness contracted on or solely attributable to field or foreign service.

ii. Incurable disorders brought on by performing particular duties or serving in unhealthy surroundings.

Cases coming under (ii) require the special orders of Government.

3. Injury pensions reduced for carelessness.—Injury pensions (and gratuities in the case of Commissioned Officers) are inadmissible for injuries due to a mere accident not caused by duty, and the rate of pension (and gratuity in the case of Commissioned Officers) may be reduced if the injury was due to awkwardness or want of reasonable care.

4. Accident during action.—In the case of an injury caused by an accident during action with an enemy, the Government will decide whether the wound or the injury rate of pension (and gratuity in the case of Commissioned Officers) shall be granted.

5. Pensions and gratuities depend on rank held on the date when wound or injury was received.—Wound and injury pensions (and gratuities in the case of Commissioned Officers) are granted in accordance with the rank held on the date that the wound or injury was received, or the illness contracted.

If the individual is promoted to a higher rank for distinguished gallantry on the occasion on which he was wounded or injured, the Government may grant him the pension attached to the higher rank.

6. Inadmissible to men who continue to serve except to Officers.—Except in the case of Commissioned Officers, wound and injury pensions can only be granted to those who are rendered unfit for further service in the Army.

7. Conditions determining amount of wound and injury pensions.—Except in the case of Commissioned Officers and Sub-Assistant Surgeon (and Assistant Veterinarian) the amount of wound and injury pensions depends on the following classification of degrees of injury received or illness contracted.

1st Degree—Loss of two limbs or eyes or incapacitated from earning a living and requiring the care of another person.

2nd Degree—Loss of one limb or eye or incapacitated from earning a living, but not requiring the care of another person.

3rd Degree—Wound or injury equal to the loss of a limb, or preventing the recipient from contributing except partially towards his livelihood.

No. G. 7923-5—MILY. 21-14-577, DATED 18TH DECEMBER 1915.

Note 2.—An Officer who has received in action

(i) bodily injury equivalent to the loss of a limb, or (ii) a wound which has occasioned the loss of an eye or a limb or the use of a limb, may in the first instance be granted a gratuity of twelve months' pay at rates given in para 9. After one year such Officer may be granted a temporary pension renewable every year on reports from the Medical Board. If the temporary pension is renewed for five years, such pension may at the discretion of Government be made permanent. In the case of the loss of an eye or a limb in consequence of such wound or injury an Officer may at the discretion of Government be granted a permanent pension on the scale laid down in para 9 after the lapse of one year.

Note 3.—An Officer, who has received in action a bodily injury certified to be very severe though not equivalent to the loss of a limb may be allowed a gratuity of from 3 to 12 months' pay at the discretion of Government. After the expiry of that period, if the injury is reported as likely to be permanent in its effects the Officer may be granted a temporary pension at half the rates mentioned in para 9. Such temporary pension is renewable every year on reports from Medical Board. If it is thus renewed for five years and the bodily disability continues the pension may be made permanent.

Note 4.—An Officer may be recommended for a gratuity and a pension for each limb or eye the loss of the use of which was caused by a wound received in action but his total pension should not be higher than what is admissible for the combined injury.

Note 5.—If an Officer, through the performance of Military duty otherwise than in action, loses a limb or an eye or sustains any other injury either permanent or of a serious nature (as defined in note 2 above) he may be recommended for special rates of pension not exceeding the scale in para 9. Such pensions may be continued and made permanent on the same terms as in Notes 2 and 3.

Note 6.—If an Officer under similar circumstances sustains an injury which though severe and likely to be permanent but not so severe as to entitle him to a pension under Note 5 may be granted a gratuity of from 3 to 12 months' pay of the appointment held by him on the date of his injury.

Recorded.

2. The report should have been submitted to Government through the Director of the Department of Mines and Geology.

3. The Inspector of Explosives again brings to notice frequent delays on the part of the local Licensing and Inspecting officers in the submission of the monthly returns, too frequent inspections of certain licensed premises and total neglect of others, omission to report cases of accidents outside Mining areas and levy of excessive rates of stamp duty on applications for licenses, etc. These matters have been brought to the notice of the District Magistrates by Government in their review of the Explosives Reports of previous years. It is hoped that the Inspector-General of Police and the District Magistrates will devote special attention to these matters in future years.

Letter No. 4256—175, dated the 1st September 1915, from the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, forwarding a copy of letter No. 303, dated the 11th August 1915, from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, regarding the inconvenience existing at present in the matter of disbursing the amount sanctioned for school buildings under the authority of Government Order No. 12152-4—Edn. 289-13, dated the 3rd June 1915, and suggesting that where the Government grant to a building does not exceed Rs. 1,000 the certificate of a Public Works Department Officer, which is now necessary under Rule VII of the grant-in-aid code before any amount can be disbursed, may be dispensed with.

Order No. 2700-10—Edn. 27-15-13, dated 10th December 1915.

As it has been found that owing to the large number of school buildings constructed with the aid of private contribution, the existing procedure entails undue delay in payment, Government are pleased to approve of the proposal of the Inspector-General of Education to dispense with the certificate of the Public Works Department where the Government grant to a building does not exceed Rs. 1,000. The following clause will be added to Rule VII of the grant-in-aid code.

"In the case of buildings, however, where the Government grant does not exceed Rs. 1,000, the certificate of a Public Works Department Officer may be dispensed with and the amount may be disbursed wholly when the building is completed, or in instalments as the building approaches completion to the satisfaction of the Inspector-General of Education or of the Deputy Commissioner of the district concerned as certified by the Amildar of the Taluk or the District Inspector of Education respectively. This power has been granted for the present for a period of three years".

2. Letter No. 3079—131, dated the 18th August 1915, from the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, recommending at the instance of the Advisory Committee for the award of the Khadayata scholarships, the modification of the rules sanctioned in Government Order read above, to suit the alterations in the regulations of the University of Bombay, and the institution of two new scholarships to be granted to the students taking up commerce, one of Rs. 15 per mensem annually in the Intermediate Commerce class tenable for one year, and one of Rs. 20 per mensem in alternate years in the Bachelor of Commerce classes tenable for two years.

Order No. 2656-7—Edn. 51-15-4, dated 8th December 1915.

Sanctioned.

2. The modified Rules are printed below:—

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to sanction the following revised rules for the grant of scholarships to Khadayata students for general and technical education:—

I. These scholarships shall be known as the "Mysore Government Damodar Das Khadayata scholarships" and shall be for the encouragement of general and technical education among the people of the Khadayata caste, to which the late Damodar Das belonged. They shall be paid from the proceeds of one-fifth of the Damodar Das Charities Fund, such one-fifth being treated as a separate subordinate fund for this purpose, and separate accounts being kept therefor.

II. They shall be awarded annually as follows with the exception of that mentioned in (e).

(a) Four scholarships, each of the value of Rs. 10 per mensem, and tenable for one year to Khadayata students who have Matriculated and who continue to study satisfactorily for the course appointed by the Bombay University for the first two terms at the Guzerat College, Ahmedabad, or any other College that may be approved by the Government of Mysore.

(b) Three scholarships, each of the value of Rs. 15 per mensem, and tenable for one year to Khadayata students who produce certificates from the Principal of an Arts College that they have satisfactorily carried out the work appointed by the University for the first two terms and who continue to study satisfactorily for the Intermediate Examination, for the degree of B.A. or B.Sc. of the Bombay University at the Guzerat College, Ahmedabad or at any other College that may be approved by the Government of Mysore.

(c) Two scholarships each of the value of Rs. 20 per mensem and tenable for two years, to Khadayata students who have passed the Intermediate Examination, and continue to study satisfactorily for the

B.A., or B.Sc., Degree Examination of the Bombay University at the Guzerat College, Ahmedabad or at any other College that may be approved by the Government of Mysore.

(d) One scholarship of Rs. 15 per mensem tenable for one year to a Khadayata student, who produces a certificate from the Principal of an Arts College, that he has satisfactorily carried out the work appointed by the University for the first two terms, and continues to study satisfactorily for the Intermediate Examination in Commerce of the Bombay University at the Government College of Commerce, Bombay or any other College that may be approved by the Government of Mysore.

(e) One scholarship of the value of Rs. 15 per mensem and tenable for two years but awardable every alternate year to a Khadayata student, who having passed the Intermediate Examination continues to study satisfactorily for the Degree of Bachelor of Commerce of the Bombay University at the Government College of Commerce, Bombay, or any other College that may be approved by the Government of Mysore.

(f) One scholarship of Rs. 15 per mensem. tenable for three years to a Khadayata student of Engineering or Agriculture, reading for the Degree of Bachelor of Engineering or Bachelor of Agriculture, and alternately a scholarship of Rs. 20 per mensem, tenable for five years to a Khadayata student of Medicine, at any College approved by the Government of Mysore, provided that failure to pass any University Examination at first trial, shall entail a forfeiture of scholarship.

Note.—1. Every one of the above scholarships will be liable to forfeiture, in case the student concerned is found to be of bad moral conduct or otherwise unfit to hold the same

2. A female candidate competing for a scholarship, shall always be entitled to preference over any male candidate for the same, irrespective of her rank or order of merit in the examination last passed.

III. To help the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore in the selection of students for such scholarships, a Committee shall be formed consisting of selected gentlemen of the Khadayata community to be appointed by Government from time to time.

All applications should ordinarily be submitted to the Committee through the Principal of the Institution attended by the applicants. After enquiry into the circumstances of each case, the committee will submit recommendations for giving the scholarships as early as possible after the commencement of the College courses in the subject which the candidate is studying to the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore, who will submit them with his opinion to Government for final sanction.

IV. When the number of candidates who in the opinion of the Kadayata Committee are equally in need of educational assistance, exceeds the number of scholarships available, the relative merits of the candidates may be adjudged by the results of the University Examinations previously passed.

Failure to pass any University Examination or to obtain the Principal's certificate as referred to in Rule II (b) and (d) debars the holder of a scholarship for that examination from competing with fresh candidates for the same scholarship.

V. A scholarship forfeited or rendered vacant shall be awarded to some other needy Khadayata candidate studying for the same course. If no such candidate is available it shall be awarded to any other Khadayata candidate studying for any of the course comprised under this scheme, who in the opinion of the Committee aforesaid, is eligible for the same and is in need of educational assistance.

VI. In the event of there being any scholarship or other sums not utilized under the above rules, the amount unappropriated shall be distributed, in such manner as may be approved by Government, by general or special orders in this behalf, among objects calculated to promote the general or technical education of the Khadayata community.

No. 2656-7—Edn. 51-15-4, dated 8th December 1915.

VII. The Mysore Government grant for the scholarships (a) to (f) referred to in para II, will paid every three months to the Principals of the Colleges attended by the several students, on receipt of satisfactory reports of conduct and progress forwarded by the Principals.

VIII. Notwithstanding anything contained in the above rules, the Committee may nominate to any of the said scholarships, students of the said community prosecuting studies in Colleges affiliated to other Indian Universities than that of Bombay.

IX. The foregoing rules are subject to revision, whenever the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore deem such revision necessary.

Letter No. 2572, dated 10th May 1915, from the Secretary to the Mysore Economic Conference.

"I have the honor to forward herewith for orders of Government copy of letter No. 391, dated 18th August 1914, from the Secretary, Industries and Commerce Committee, submitting copy of resolution passed by the Committee at its meeting held on the 30th July 1914, to the effect that the scheme prepared by Mr. Chakravarti, for Village Savings Banks be forwarded to Government for favourable consideration.

2. In pursuance of the orders of the President, the opinions of the District Committees and the Presidents of District Committees in the matter, were called for and final replies have been received from the Districts of Hassan, Mysore, Chitaldrug, Kadur and Tumkur.

3. All the above District Committees with their Presidents, generally approve of the scheme being tried in a few selected villages on the lines indicated in the note of Mr. Chakravarti as an experimental measure and suggest a few modifications in and addition to the rules.

4. The Hassan District Committee is of opinion that the scheme may be tried in large villages and unions where well-to-do private gentlemen are available for undertaking the work, as it is not likely that the scheme would work satisfactorily or become popular if the charge of such banks be entrusted to either the shanbhogs or patels, generally.

5. The Mysore District Committee thinks that the scheme is worth a trial and that the rules are workable and presumes that remuneration to the man in charge of the box referred to in Rule (20) in Mr. Chakravarti's scheme, will be paid by the Government and not deducted out of the interest due to the depositors

6. The Chitaldrug District Committee sees no objection to the scheme being tried in a few villages in the district as an experimental measure and the President concurs in the views of the Committee.

7. The Kadur District Committee suggests that the scheme may be tried in a few villages within easy reach of the taluk headquarters, as a tentative measure.

8. The Tumkur District Committee recommends the scheme for adoption with the following additions and alterations in the rule.

(i) Banks may be started to begin with, in villages containing more than 300 population, or groups of villages containing more than 300 population in total.

(ii) It is not necessary to start Banks in villages where Co-operative Societies have already been formed.

(iii) No deposit less than one anna should be accepted, and deposits of any man should not exceed Rs. 5 per month.

(iv) The agent or the person in charge of the Bank should be authorised to make small repayments to the depositors not exceeding Re. 1 per month in each case; for this purpose an imprest of Rs. 10 may be given to him.

(v) Withdrawal should not be allowed for less than annas 4.

(vi) No security need be demanded from the person in charge of the Bank.

(vii) The deposit amount should be remitted to the treasury of the taluk in which the Bank is situated at the end of every month.

9. I am to request that early orders of Government may be obtained in the matter."

Order No. 2904-14—A. & I. 228-14-2, dated 22nd December 1915.

The Industries and Commerce Committee, in recommending the scheme of Village Savings Banks for the favourable consideration of Government, state that the establishment of such banks is likely to be of great benefit to the rural population. Government consider that the scheme is deserving of a trial, as a means of bringing together the small savings of the poorer classes and utilizing them productively. They are, therefore pleased to approve generally of the scheme and accord sanction to its being tried in selected localities. The exact designation of the Banks may be settled hereafter.

No. 2904-14—A. & I. 228 14-2, DATED 22ND DECEMBER 1915.

2. To meet the initial charges in connection with the scheme a sum of Rs. 2,000 is placed at the disposal of the Industries and Commerce Committee. This may be met by reappropriation from the state grant for "Public Exhibitions and Fairs." Detailed proposals regarding the particular villages in which it is proposed to start the Banks and the persons who may be appointed as officers in charge should be submitted to Government for approval by the Comptroller to Government after consulting the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts concerned. The working and control of the Banks will be entrusted to the Comptroller. The Deputy Commissioners are requested to do all in their power to explain the benefits of the scheme to the people, and make it a success.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

READ—

Government Order No. R. 6058-6107—L. R. 430-13-1, dated the 6th February 1914, sanctioning a scheme of Village Improvements in Mysore, and requesting the Revenue Commissioner to submit a consolidated return of certain statistics.

2. Letter No. 4638, dated the 7th October 1915, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the consolidated return for the year 1914-15.

Order No. 2931-80—A. & I. 91-15-2, dated 23rd December 1915.

Recorded.

2. General Remarks.—This is the second return submitted under the Village Improvement Scheme. It contains additional information regarding the number of villages having Village Improvement Committees, of Government and private schools, and of agriculture and industrial appliances, etc.

Number of Villages included in the Return.—The statistics deal with 17,682 villages as against 16,985 villages in the previous year's return. Out of 19,537 villages in the State, the total number of populated villages both Sircar and Inam according to the Census of 1911, is only 16,740. The returns therefore obviously include some bechirak or uninhabited villages and majares or hamlets. No uninhabited village should be adopted as a unit and where it is necessary to take such a village into account, owing to any of the cultivated lands being situated therein a note may be made to this effect in the column of remarks and the number of such villages indicated separately. The number of inam villages for which statistics are furnished and the number omitted for want of a suitable collecting agency should also be mentioned.

3. Population.—The total population of the villages included in the return is 4,774,000 as against 4,713,129 given in the previous year's return and against 5,147,864 of the total rural population (including persons engaged in rural occupations but living in towns and cities) according to the Census of 1911. The number of literates is returned at 2,34,161 or4·9 per cent as against 5·01 per cent given in the previous year's return, while the percentage of literates for the whole rural population of the State according to the Census is 5·3. It is evident that the figures require further verification. As literacy forms a most important item in the village statistics, it is necessary that special care should be bestowed in getting correct figures under this head.

4. Village Improvement Committees.—The number of villages or groups of villages having Village Committees was 8,906, out of which 3,483 are reported to have done good work. In the Kolar, Tumkur and Hassan Districts, there are a number of villages in which Committees have yet to be formed.

5. Education.—The total number of village schools given in the return is 5,636, of which 2,395, are private and unaided, while the rest are Government or aided. The number of persons receiving instruction was 161,467 or 3·4 per cent as compared with 2·84 per cent shown in the previous year's return. The number of reading rooms and similar institutions was 580 as against 165 in the previous year. These figures no doubt indicate some slight progress in the spread of education but the results are still far from satisfactory and demand special efforts from the department and other agencies interested in education to obtain increased co-operation from the people not only in opening more schools but in ensuring better attendance at schools.

No. 2931-80—A. & I. 91-15-2, dated 23rd December 1915.

6. Occupations.—Out of every 1,000 persons in the rural areas, 806 (i.e., more than 80 per cent) were engaged in agriculture, 96 supported themselves by manual labour, 34 followed handicrafts, such as weaving, pottery, carpentry and smithy, 2 pursued sericulture and the remaining 3 other occupations. Of these, 61 per cent are workers and 39 per cent dependents.

7. Value of Production.—The following table gives the area under cultivation and outturn of the various crops grown in the villages included in the return (arranged in order of gross outturn) as compared with the corresponding figures of last year.

	Total ...	15·6	15·4	.....	.... .	..	..

The statement shows that there was a perceptible decrease in the area of some of the more profitable crops such as sugar-cane, oil seeds and also paddy due probably to insufficient rainfall. Notwithstanding the fluctuations due to unfavourable seasonal conditions in the areas under different crops there is great scope for the extension of commercial crops and for more intensive cultivation of other crops ordinarily grown.

8. The value of the gross agricultural produce is estimated at about Rs. 899·27 lakhs and the average value of outturn per acre works out at Rs. 15·4 as against 15·6 arrived at from the previous year's return. Government are inclined to think that the gross value is somewhat underestimated. They would be glad if District Officers will take steps to verify the figures entered in the returns for a few selected villages, by ascertaining the actual outturn and the value thereof according to the prevailing market rates.

9. Industrial Output.—The total industrial output is estimated at about 40·29 lakhs as shown below:—

Weaving	...	...	. .	21·03 lakhs
Silk worm rearing and silk reeling		...	...	6·65 ,,
Pottery	...	...	...	3·33 ,,
Other industries	...	...	...	9·28 ,,

10. The total value of the agricultural and industrial production during the year as given in the return amounts to Rs. 9,39,56,901. This works out at about Rs. 19·7 per head of rural population as against Rs. 19·1 the corresponding figure arrived at last year.

11. Agricultural Resources.—The number of improved ploughs in use is 1,653 as against 7,68,653 ordinary ploughs. Improved ploughs are being used in the Bangalore, Mysore, Tumkur and Chitaldrug Districts on a larger scale than in the other districts. The total number of pumping installations for purposes of irrigation in all the districts except Hassan is 77.

12. Out of 9,70,894 families to which the statistics relate, 69,781 (or one in every fourteen) carry on subsidiary occupations in addition to agriculture and 64,902 (or one in every fifteen) are reported to be able to maintain themselves from their savings during two successive years of distress.

13. Agencies for Improvement.—In 2,618 villages (or 1 in every 7 villages) one evening a week is reported to have been devoted by the raiyats to spreading information by reading newspapers and in 7,371 villages or about 41 per cent of the total number of villages the inhabitants undertook to effect ordinary village improvement works such as removal or rank vegetation, repairing roads and tanks, etc., by means of joint labour half a day every week. The total number of days on which the villagers worked in all the villages is stated to be 48,161. In future returns the total number of persons who worked should also be stated. The total cost of village improvement works undertaken by the villagers with the aid of Government grants-in-aid of half the cost during the year, amounted to Rs. 3,73,134.

14. Most of the important variations between the present figures and those of last year are referred to above. As the village agencies have now some experience in collecting the statistics the differences are probably due in a few cases to their having been able to furnish more correct figures during the current year, but on the whole there is no doubt that the information gathered is still far from being accurate. It should be impressed upon the collecting agencies that independent enquiries should be undertaken by them every year, instead of adopting the figures for the previous year with or without modification. It is hoped that having regard to their importance no efforts will be spared to improve the collection of these statistics and make them as reliable as possible.

In furnishing future returns Deputy Commissioners of Districts are requested to attach a brief explanatory note referring to all salient points and the Revenue Commissioner should briefly review the statistics in forwarding them to Government.

15. The annual publication of these statistics is expected to serve as a useful means of drawing attention to the actual condition of the people and of furnishing information to all agencies interested in the improvement of the rural population and in promoting their progress. The following outstanding facts in the returns deserve careful consideration from all bodies connected with the Economic Conference and the departments allied to it.

No. 2931-80—A. & I. 91-15-2, dated 23rd December 1915.

More than 80 per cent of the people are entirely dependent on agriculture and the average amount earned by the rural population works out at less than Rs. 20 per head. Only about 7 per cent of these follow some subsidiary occupations. Rural industries are in a very backward state and few of them afford more than a living wage to the persons engaged therein. The percentage of literacy among the rural population is very low as it is less than 6. Excepting agriculture there are few other important occupations, and even agriculture does not provide full employment to the rural population.

Water-supply to Municipal Slaughter-houses.

No. 2355-62—P. W. 11754-61, DATED 16TH DECEMBER 1915.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

READ—

Letter No. 326, dated the 13th May 1915, from the President, Bangalore City Municipal Council, requesting that orders may be issued to the Water-Supply Department that, from the bill for water-supply to the Municipal Slaughter-house, necessary reduction be made on account of the usual free allowance of water calculated on the rental value of the building.

Order No. 2355-62—P. W. 11754-61, dated 16th December 1915.

The bill prepared by the Water-Supply Department on account of water supplied to the slaughter-house from 30th September 1912 to 30th September 1914 amounts to Rs. 764-4-0 and the full quantity of water drawn is charged for according to rules. The Municipal President contends that it could not be the intention of Government to withdraw the privilege of the usual free allowance in this case, when the concession applies to all buildings and all public buildings enjoy it.

2. It should, however, be borne in mind that the water supplied to a slaughter-house cannot be considered to be for a bona fide domestic purpose under the rules but as a supply for a "Municipal purpose." The rules permit the supply of water for the latter at half the usual rate charged to house owners. Beyond this, no further concession can be allowed in the form of a free allowance. Whether the building is a "public institution" or whether it is liable to pay Municipal taxes does not affect the case so long as the supply is for a non-domestic purpose.

3. Many connections have been given to private parties for non-domestic purposes at the full prescribed rates, and in none of these cases has free allowance been allowed, though Municipal taxes calculated on the rental value of the buildings concerned are paid by the respective parties.

4. In these circumstances, Government see no reason to order any reduction in the bill in question on account of free allowance. It may be considered as a general rule that, wherever the Municipality claims half rate for the supply of water, there can be no question of free allowance.

Establishment of Gauging Stations in the Principal River Valleys of the State.

No. 2379-91- P. W. 11853-65, DATED 18TH DECEMBER 1915.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

READ—

Public Works Department notes, dated the 23rd November 1914 and 2nd October 1915, regarding proposals for establishing gauging stations in the principal river valleys of the State.

Order No. 2379-91—P. W. 11853-65, dated 18th December 1915.

One of the duties assigned to the newly formed Irrigation Division is the control of the gauging operations at a few selected rivers, canals and tanks and the collection of hydraulic facts and data after systematic experiment and observation.

2. It is now proposed to make a beginning by establishing 14 representative gauging stations in each of the principal river valleys of the State in addition to the marginally noted six Stations where systematic gauging has been and is being conducted by the Cauvery Reservoir Division, the Electrical Department and the Water-Supply Department.

1. Kalhalli anicut 2 Ayerhalli anicut 3. Chikdevaroy and Devaroy anicuts.	Cauvery Reservoir Division
4. Sivasamudram	Electrical Department
5 Hesserghatta tank 6 Bethamangala tank	Water Supply Department

3. The initial cost of fixing gauges is estimated at Rs. 4,200 and the cost of the requisite staff for maintaining the records from day to day will amount to an equal sum per annum; and this expenditure of Rs. 8,400 is proposed to be met out of the lump sum grant of Rs. 50,000 for irrigation investigations provided in the current year's Public Works Budget.

4. Government consider that the results of observations will be very useful for economising the consumption of water below the existing canals and tanks and for designing new works on a more scientific basis. The work is of great value for future developments. The proposals are accordingly sanctioned for a period of three years in the first instance.

5. A list of the gauging stations and copies of estimates of the initial and recurring charges are appended.
